WIRELESS TELECOMMUNICATIONS BUREAU APPROVES WITHDRAWAL OF PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION AND RECISSION

On May 17, 1995, Capitol Radiotelephone Company, Inc. (Capitol) filed a Petition for Reconsideration and Recission (Petition) of the Commission's April 18, 1995, renewal of Ram Technologies, Inc.'s private carrier paging license, call sign WNJN621.

On February 8, 2000, Capitol filed a letter with the Commission stating that it no longer intends to protest the renewal and that it does not oppose dismissal of the Petition. Letter from Kenneth E. Hardman, counsel to Capitol, to Richard J. Arsenault, FCC (Feb. 8, 2000) (Capitol Letter).

The Policy and Rules Branch of the Commercial Wireless Division has reviewed the Capitol Letter and hereby dismisses, with prejudice, Capitol's Petition for Reconsideration and Recission, filed on May 17, 1995, File No. 9502R48248.

Action by the Chief, Policy and Rules Branch, Commercial Wireless Division, Wireless Telecommunications Bureau.

For further information, contact Richard Arsenault at (202) 418-0920, Wireless Telecommunications Bureau, Commercial Wireless Division, Policy and Rules Branch.
