INTERNATIONAL DETARIFFING ORDER TAKES EFFECT

NINE-MONTH TRANSITION PERIOD BEGINS

DA 01-1126
IB Docket No. 00-202

On April 27, 2001 the Commission's Report and Order detariffing the international interexchange services of nondominant interexchange carriers (IXCs) became effective.¹ In accordance with the policy and rules adopted in the International Detariffing Order, all tariffs for the provision of international interexchange services by non-dominant providers, with limited exceptions as set forth in the order, must be cancelled by January 28, 2002. During the interim nine-month transition period, non-dominant carriers may continue to file new or revised tariffs for mass market international interexchange services only. Carriers may not file new or revised contract tariffs or tariffs for other long-term international service arrangements. Parties may obtain further information about the requirements of the nine-month transition period in the International Detariffing Order, which is also available on the Commission's web site at <http://www.fcc.gov/Bureaus/International/Orders/2001/fcc01093.doc>

Parties with questions about the tariff cancellation process should contact the Tariff and Price Analysis Branch in the Competitive Pricing Division of the Common Carrier Bureau, (202) 418-1520. Parties with questions about this Public Notice or the International Detariffing Order should contact Peggy Reitzel in the Telecommunications Division of the International Bureau, (202) 418-1460.
