Wireless Telecommunications Bureau (WTB) to Reschedule Universal Licensing System (ULS) Interactive Demonstrations in Washington, DC, to Friday, September 28, 2001.

Demonstrations originally scheduled for Monday, September 24, 2001, have been moved to Friday, September 28, 2001. Hours and Locations for Application/License Search and Microwave/Land Mobile Filing sessions remain unchanged.

The WTB of the Federal Communications Commission will postpone the interactive demonstrations of portions of ULS at its Washington, DC, headquarters originally scheduled for September 24, 2001. The demo/training sessions will occur on Friday, September 28, 2001. The demonstrations will still take place in the ITC Training Room on the Twelfth Street level (main entrance level) of the Portals II building, 445 12th Street, S. W. in Washington.

The September 28, 2001, demonstrations will be divided into two sessions:

Morning session: ULS Application Search and License Search, 10 a.m.– 12 p. m.

Afternoon session: ULS Microwave and Land Mobile Filing, 1 p.m.– 4 p.m.

If you need further information, please contact Drew Eisenhauer by e-mail, deisenha@fcc.gov, or by phone, 202-418-0584. If you have previously registered, please notify us whether or not you can attend September 28.

Thank you for your interest in this WTB interactive demonstration.
