TECHNOLOGICAL ADVISORY COUNCIL TO HOLD MEETING

The FCC's Technological Advisory Council, a Federal Advisory Committee comprised of a broad array of well-known technologists and chaired by Dr. Robert Lucky, Corporate Vice President, Telcordia Technologies, will hold its second meeting under its renewed charter Monday, November 5, 2001 at 10:00 a.m. in the Commission's meeting room at 445 12th St. S.W., Washington, D.C.

The Council helps provide technological insights that the Commission needs to stay abreast of innovations in communications and related industries. The Council will also discuss the organization, membership and progress of the Council's focus groups.

Members of the general public may attend the meeting. The Federal Communications Commission will attempt to accommodate as many persons as possible. Admittance, however, will be limited to the seating available. There will be no public oral participation unless requested by the Chair, but the public may submit written comments before the meeting to Julius Knapp, the Council's Designated Federal Officer. Julius Knapp's email address is jknapp@fcc.gov. His U.S. Postal Service mail address is Julius Knapp, Deputy Chief, Office of Engineering and Technology, Federal Communications Commission, 445 12th Street, SW, Washington, DC 20554.
