Wireless Telecommunications Bureau (WTB) to Conduct
Universal Licensing System (ULS) Interactive Demonstrations
February 28 and March 1, 2001, in Washington, DC
Demonstrations Scheduled on Application/License Search and Microwave/Land Mobile Filing (02/28/01); and Transfers and Assignments, including Partitioning and Disaggregation (03/01/01)

The Federal Communications Commission's (FCC's) WTB will conduct interactive demonstrations of ULS at its Washington, DC headquarters on Wednesday, February 28, 2001, and Thursday, March 1, 2001. WTB seeks comments and suggestions from those individuals who are interested in attending these demonstrations to coordinate and to design future events more effectively.

WTB will hold both demonstrations at FCC headquarters in Washington, DC, in the ITC Training Room on the Twelfth Street level (main entrance level) of the Portals building at 445 12th Street, SW.

The topics of the February 28 demonstration will be:

Morning session: ULS Application/License Search, from 10 a.m. until noon.

Afternoon session: ULS Microwave/Land Mobile Filing, from 1 p.m. until 4 p.m.

The topic of the March 1 demonstration will be:

Morning session: Transfers and Assignments, including Partitioning and Disaggregation, from 10 a.m. until 12:30 p.m.

WTB has chosen these topics based on comments from previous demonstrations and will add, delete, or modify future demonstrations as participant interest dictates. WTB plans to hold ULS demonstrations on additional wireless services as these services are deployed.

Those interested in attending demonstrations or providing comments should contact Mike Etheredge at (202) 418-0584, e-mail Methered@fcc.gov. Please specify your name, the sessions you want to attend, and your organization. Also, please provide a telephone number and an e-mail address. You also may indicate what radio services interest you most. Seating is limited and on a first-come, first-served basis.
