ORDER

Adopted: May 13, 2002

Released: May 17, 2002

By the Deputy Chief, Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau:

1. In this Order, we consider the complaint¹ alleging that RCN/21st Century Telecom (RCN) changed Complainant's telecommunications service provider without obtaining authorization and verification from Complainant in violation of the Commission's rules.² We conclude that RCN actions did result in an unauthorized change in Complainant's telecommunications service provider and we grant Complainant's complaint.

2. In December 1998, the Commission released the Section 258 Order in which it adopted rules to implement Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934 (Act), as amended by the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (1996 Act).³ Section 258 prohibits the practice of

Oct. 4, 2000), Order, FCC 01-67 (rel. Feb. 22, 2001); reconsideration pending. Prior to the adoption of Section 258, the Commission had taken various steps to address the slamming problem. See, e.g., Policies and Rules Concerning Unauthorized Changes of Consumers' Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 94-129, Report and Order, 10 FCC Rcd 9560 (1995), stayed in part, 11 FCC Rcd 856 (1995); Policies and Rules Concerning Changing Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 91-64, 7 FCC Rcd 1038 (1992), reconsideration denied, 8 FCC Rcd 3215 (1993); Investigation of Access and Divestiture (continued....)

“slamming,” the submission or execution of an unauthorized change in a subscriber’s selection of a provider of telephone exchange service or telephone toll service.⁴ In the Section 258 Order, the Commission adopted aggressive new rules designed to take the profit out of slamming, broadened the scope of the slamming rules to encompass all carriers, and modified its existing requirements for the authorization and verification of preferred carrier changes. The rules require, among other things, that a carrier receive individual subscriber consent before a carrier change may occur.⁵ Pursuant to Section 258, carriers are absolutely barred from changing a customer's preferred local or long distance carrier without first complying with one of the Commission's verification procedures.⁶ Specifically, a carrier must: (1) obtain the subscriber's written or electronically signed authorization in a format that meets the requirements of Section 64.1130 authorization; (2) obtain confirmation from the subscriber via a toll-free number provided exclusively for the purpose of confirming orders electronically; or (3) utilize an independent third party to verify the subscriber's order.⁷

3. The Commission also has adopted liability rules. These rules require the carrier to absolve the subscriber where the subscriber has not paid his or her bill. In that context, if the subscriber has not already paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the subscriber is absolved of liability for charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier for service provided during the first 30 days after the unauthorized change.⁸ Where the subscriber has paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the Commission’s rules require that the unauthorized carrier pay 150% of those charges to the authorized carrier, and the authorized carrier shall refund or credit to the subscriber 50% of all charges paid by the subscriber to the unauthorized carrier.⁹

4. We received Complainant’s complaint on June 6, 2001 alleging that Complainant’s local and intraLATA toll service provider had been changed from Ameritech-Illinois (Ameritech) to RCN without Complainant’s authorization. Pursuant to Sections 1.719 and 64.1150 of our rules,¹⁰ we notified RCN of the complaint and RCN responded on July 26,

2001.¹¹ RCN indicates that authorization was received and confirmed through third party verification. RCN's third party verifier, however, failed to obtain separate authorizations for each service sold as required by our rules.¹² RCN has failed to produce clear and convincing evidence that complainant authorized a carrier change.¹³ We find that RCN's actions resulted in an unauthorized change in Complainant's local and intraLATA toll service provider and we discuss RCN liability below.¹⁴

5. Pursuant to Section 64.1170(b) our rules, RCN must forward to Ameritech an amount equal to 150% of all charges paid by the subscriber to RCN.¹⁵ According to the complaint, the amount paid by Complainant to RCN is $19.96. This amount multiplied by 150% equals $29.94. Therefore, RCN must forward to Ameritech the amount of $29.94, along with copies of any telephone bills issued from the company to the Complainant.¹⁶ Within ten days of receipt of this amount, Ameritech shall provide a refund or credit to Complainant in the amount of 50% of all charges paid by Complainant to RCN. Complainant has the option of asking Ameritech to re-rate RCN's charges based on Ameritech's rates and, on behalf of Complainant, seek from RCN, any re-rated amount exceeding 50% of all charges paid by Complainant to RCN. Ameritech must also send a notice to the Commission, referencing this Order, stating that it has given a refund or credit to Complainant.¹⁷ If Ameritech has not received the reimbursement required from RCN within 45 days of the release of this Order, Ameritech must notify the Commission and Complainant accordingly. Ameritech also must notify the Complainant of his or her right to pursue a claim against RCN for a refund of all charges paid to RCN.¹⁸

6. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 258, and Sections 0.141, 0.361 and 1.719 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.141, 0.361, 1.719, the complaint filed against RCN IS GRANTED.

¹⁴ If Complainant is unsatisfied with the resolution of this complaint, Complainant may file a formal complaint with the Commission pursuant to Section 1.721 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.721. Such filing will be deemed to relate back to the filing date of Complainant's informal complaint so long as the formal complaint is filed within 45 days from the date this order is mailed or delivered electronically to Complainant. See 47 C.F.R. § 1.719.

7. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT, PURSUANT TO Section 64.1170(b) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 64.1170(b), that RCN must forward to Ameritech an amount equal to $29.94 (150% of all charges paid by the subscriber) along with copies of any telephone bills issued from the company to the Complainant within ten (10) days of the release of this order.

8. IT IS FURTHER ORDER that, pursuant to Section 64.1170(d) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §64.1170(d), Complainant is entitled to absolution for the charges incurred during the first thirty days after the unauthorized change occurred and neither Ameritech nor RCN may pursue any collection against Complainant for those charges.

9. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Order is effective upon release.
