WIRELESS TELECOMMUNICATIONS BUREAU SEEKS COMMENT ON PROPOSAL TO REVISE MULTICHANNEL MULTIPOINT DISTRIBUTION SERVICE AND THE INSTRUCTIONAL TELEVISION FIXED SERVICE RULES
(RM-10586)

Comment Date: November 14, 2002

Reply Date: November 21, 2002

The Wireless Telecommunications Bureau (Bureau) seeks comment on a recently filed paper entitled, "A Proposal for Revising the MDS and ITFS Regulatory Regime," submitted by the Wireless Communications Association International, Inc., the National ITFS Association and the Catholic Television Network ("proponents") on October 7, 2002. The proponents represent that the proposal reflects a consensus among the author organizations regarding suggested comprehensive rule changes for the Multichannel Multipoint Distribution Service ("MMDS") and the Instructional Television Fixed Service ("ITFS"). The Bureau is seeking comment to facilitate its evaluation of the recommendations.

By way of background, MMDS and ITFS stations are authorized in the 2150-2162 MHz and 2500-2690 MHz bands. The services have traditionally been used to provide one-way video services, and most frequencies from 2500-2690 MHz have been licensed in groups of four 6 MHz channels. In 1998, the Commission adopted rules allowing MMDS and ITFS licensees to provide two-way services.¹ In 2001, the Commission established a mobile allocation in the MMDS and ITFS band.² The proposal states that further rule changes are needed to facilitate provision of two-way fixed and mobile services, while allowing others to continue to provide one-way video services. The stated goals of the proposal are:

- Eliminate site-by-site licensing requirements for MMDS and ITFS licensees;
- modify interference protection rules to facilitate deployment of two-way cellular wireless services;
- segregate high-power and low-power operations into separate band segments to avoid mutual interference;
- consolidate licensed channels into contiguous blocks, replacing the existing interleaved licensing approach;
- remove regulatory underbrush and conform the MMDS/ITFS rules to those applicable to other services administered by the Bureau, particularly geographically licensed flexible use services.

² Amendment of Part 2 of the Commission's Rules to Allocate Spectrum Below 3 GHz for Mobile and Fixed Service to Support the Introduction of New Advanced Wireless Services, Including Third Generation Wireless Systems, First Report and Order and Memorandum Opinion and Order, ET Docket No. 00-258, 16 FCC Rcd 17222 (2001).

The proposal suggests a variety of changes to the service rules applicable to MMDS and ITFS licensees, urges the Commission to suspend build-out requirements for all MMDS and ITFS licensees, and offers suggestions for disposing of mutually-exclusive ITFS applications. The Bureau seeks comment on these suggestions, including any alternatives.

Interested parties may file comments on or before November 14, 2002, and reply comments on or before November 21, 2002.
