ORDER

Adopted: April 25, 2003

Released: April 30, 2003

By the Acting Deputy Chief, Policy Division, Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau:

1. In this Order, we consider the complaint¹ alleging that Sprint Communications Company (Sprint) changed Complainant's telecommunications service provider without obtaining authorization and verification from Complainant in violation of the Commission's rules.² We conclude that Sprint's actions did result in an unauthorized change in Complainant's telecommunications service provider and we grant Complainant's complaint.

2. In December 1998, the Commission released the Section 258 Order in which it adopted rules to implement Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934 (Act), as amended by the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (1996 Act).³ Section 258 prohibits the practice of "slamming," the submission or execution of an unauthorized change in a subscriber's selection of a provider of telephone exchange service or telephone toll service.⁴ In the Section 258 Order, the Commission adopted aggressive new rules designed to take the profit out of slamming, broadened the scope of the slamming rules to encompass all carriers, and modified its existing requirements for the authorization and verification of preferred carrier changes. The rules require, among other things, that a carrier receive individual subscriber consent before a carrier change may occur.⁵ Pursuant to Section 258, carriers are absolutely barred from changing a customer's preferred local or long distance carrier without first complying with one of the Commission's verification procedures.⁶ Specifically, a carrier must: (1) obtain the subscriber's written or electronically signed authorization in a format that meets the requirements of Section 64.1130 authorization; (2) obtain confirmation from the subscriber via a toll-free number provided exclusively for the purpose of confirming orders electronically; or (3) utilize an independent third party to verify the subscriber's order.⁷

Oct. 4, 2000), Order, FCC 01-67 (rel. Feb. 22, 2001); reconsideration pending. Prior to the adoption of Section 258, the Commission had taken various steps to address the slamming problem. See, e.g., Policies and Rules Concerning Unauthorized Changes of Consumers' Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 94-129, Report and Order, 10 FCC Rcd 9560 (1995), stayed in part, 11 FCC Rcd 856 (1995); Policies and Rules Concerning Changing Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 91-64, 7 FCC Rcd 1038 (1992), reconsideration denied, 8 FCC Rcd 3215 (1993); Investigation of Access and Divestiture Related Tariffs, CC Docket No. 83-1145, Phase I, 101 F.C.C.2d 911, 101 F.C.C.2d 935, reconsideration denied, 102 F.C.C.2d 503 (1985).

3. The Commission also has adopted liability rules. These rules require the carrier to absolve the subscriber where the subscriber has not paid his or her bill. In that context, if the subscriber has not already paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the subscriber is absolved of liability for charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier for service provided during the first 30 days after the unauthorized change.⁸ Where the subscriber has paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the Commission's rules require that the unauthorized carrier pay 150% of those charges to the authorized carrier, and the authorized carrier shall refund or credit to the subscriber 50% of all charges paid by the subscriber to the unauthorized carrier.⁹ Carriers should note that our actions in this order do not preclude the Commission from taking additional action, if warranted, pursuant to Section 503 of the Act.¹⁰

4. We received Complainant's complaint on October 24, 2002 alleging that Complainant's telecommunications service provider had been changed from Working Assets Long Distance (WALD) to Sprint without Complainant's authorization. Pursuant to Sections 1.719 and 64.1150 of our rules,¹¹ we notified Sprint of the complaint and Sprint responded on December 17, 2002.¹² Sprint states that Complainant's service was changed when a letter of agency (LOA) giving authorization was electronically signed via their website. Sprint's LOA, however, required the Complainant to deselect any service that they did not want in violation of our rules.¹³ We find that Sprint has failed to produce clear and convincing evidence that Complainant authorized a carrier change.¹⁴ Therefore, we find that Sprint's actions resulted in an unauthorized change in Complainant's telecommunications service provider and we discuss Sprint's liability below.¹⁵

5. Pursuant to Section 64.1170(b) our rules, Sprint must forward to WALD an amount equal to 150% of all charges paid by the subscriber to Sprint, along with copies of any telephone bills issued from Sprint to the Complainant.¹⁶ Within ten days of receipt of this amount, WALD shall provide a refund or credit to Complainant in the amount of 50% of all charges paid by Complainant to Sprint. Complainant has the option of asking WALD to re-rate Sprint's charges based on WALD's rates and, on behalf of Complainant, seek from Sprint, any re-rated amount exceeding 50% of all charges paid by Complainant to Sprint. WALD must also send a notice to the Commission, referencing this Order, stating that it has given a refund or credit to Complainant.¹⁷ If WALD has not received the reimbursement required from Sprint within 45 days of the release of this Order, WALD must notify the Commission and Complainant accordingly. WALD also must notify the Complainant of his or her right to pursue a claim against Sprint for a refund of all charges paid to Sprint.¹⁸

6. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 258, and Sections 0.141, 0.361 and 1.719 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.141, 0.361, 1.719, the complaint filed against Sprint IS GRANTED.

7. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 64.1170(b) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 64.1170(b), that Sprint must forward to WALD an amount equal to 150% of all charges paid by the subscriber along with copies of any telephone bills issued from Sprint to the Complainant within ten (10) days of the release of this order.

¹⁵ If Complainant is unsatisfied with the resolution of this complaint, Complainant may file a formal complaint with the Commission pursuant to Section 1.721 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.721. Such filing will be deemed to relate back to the filing date of Complainant's informal complaint so long as the formal complaint is filed within 45 days from the date this order is mailed or delivered electronically to Complainant.
