ORDER

Adopted: June 17, 2003

Released: June 19, 2003

By the Deputy Division Chief, Market Disputes Resolution Division, Enforcement Bureau:

1. On September 30, 2002, APCC Services, Inc., et al. (“APCC” or “Complainants”) filed an informal complaint (“Complaint”) alleging that Verizon Communications, Inc., (“Verizon”) is responsible for paying dial around compensation for certain types of completed calls carried by its network that originated from APCC’s payphones. Pursuant to section 1.718 of the Commission’s rules,¹ the Complainants are required to convert their informal complaint into a formal complaint within six months of the date that the Defendant replies to the informal complaint, or such informal complaint will be deemed to be abandoned. In this case, the Complainants are required to convert their informal complaint into a formal complaint by June 20, 2003.²

2. Since the filing of the Complaint on September 30, 2002, the parties have engaged in negotiations to resolve the disputes about dial around compensation issues.³ On June 12, 2003, the parties filed jointly a Request for Extension of Time to File Complainants' Formal Complaint in this matter.⁴ The parties seek a waiver of section 1.718 of the Commission's rules, and, in particular, request an extension of the deadline for filing a formal complaint from June 20, 2003, to July 25, 2003.⁵ The Joint Waiver Request explains that the parties are attempting to resolve this dispute without further litigation, and that an extension is necessary to continue negotiations and work toward settling this matter.⁶

² Letter from Allan C. Hubbard, Attorney for Complainants, and Cecelia Roudiez, Attorney for Verizon, to Jonathan Reel, Attorney, Market Disputes Resolution Division, Enforcement Bureau, FCC, File No. EB-02-MDIC-0082 (June 12, 2003) (Joint Waiver Request). Verizon replied to the Complaint on November 18, 2002, and the Commission granted parties’ joint request for extension of time to June 20, 2003. Id., n.2.

3. We are satisfied that granting the parties' Joint Waiver Request will serve the public interest by promoting the private resolution of disputes and by postponing the need for further litigation and expenditure of further time and resources of the parties and of this Commission until such time as may actually be necessary.

4. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED, pursuant to sections 4(i), 4(j), and 208 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. §§ 154(i), 154(j), and 208, and sections 1.3 and 1.718 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 1.3, 1.718, and the authority delegated in sections 0.111 and 0.311 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.111, 0.311, that the Request for Extension of Time to File Complainants' Formal Complaint IS GRANTED.

5. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, unless otherwise extended by order, the deadlines that would otherwise apply under section 1.718 of our rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.718, are hereby waived, and the date that APCC Services, Inc., et al. must convert their informal complaint against Verizon Communications, Inc., to a formal complaint pursuant to section 1.718 of our rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.718, is extended to July 25, 2003.
