ORDER

Adopted: July 28, 2004

Released: July 30, 2004

By the Deputy Chief, Consumer Policy Division, Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau:

1. In this Order, we consider the complaint filed by Complainant¹ alleging that MCI, Inc. (MCI) changed Complainant's telecommunications service provider without obtaining authorization and verification from Complainant in violation of the Commission's rules.² We conclude that MCI's actions did result in an unauthorized change in Complainant's telecommunications service provider and we grant Complainant's complaint.

2. In December 1998, the Commission released the Section 258 Order in which it adopted rules to implement Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934 (Act), as amended by the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (1996 Act).³ Section 258 prohibits the practice of

Prior to the adoption of Section 258, the Commission had taken various steps to address the slamming problem. See, e.g., Policies and Rules Concerning Unauthorized Changes of Consumers' Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 94-129, Report and Order, 10 FCC Rcd 9560 (1995), stayed in part, 11 FCC Rcd 856 (1995); Policies and Rules Concerning Changing Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 91-64, 7 FCC Rcd 1038 (1992), reconsideration denied, 8 FCC Rcd 3215 (1993); Investigation of Access and Divestiture Related Tariffs, CC Docket No. 83-1145, Phase I, 101 F.C.C.2d 911, 101 F.C.C.2d 935, reconsideration denied, 102 F.C.C.2d 503 (1985).

“slamming,” the submission or execution of an unauthorized change in a subscriber’s selection of a provider of telephone exchange service or telephone toll service.⁴ In the Section 258 Order, the Commission adopted aggressive new rules designed to take the profit out of slamming, broadened the scope of the slamming rules to encompass all carriers, and modified its existing requirements for the authorization and verification of preferred carrier changes. The rules require, among other things, that a carrier receive individual subscriber consent before a carrier change may occur.⁵ Pursuant to Section 258, carriers are absolutely barred from changing a customer's preferred local or long distance carrier without first complying with one of the Commission's verification procedures.⁶ Specifically, a carrier must: (1) obtain the subscriber's written or electronically signed authorization in a format that meets the requirements of Section 64.1130 authorization; (2) obtain confirmation from the subscriber via a toll-free number provided exclusively for the purpose of confirming orders electronically; or (3) utilize an independent third party to verify the subscriber's order.⁷

3. The Commission also has adopted liability rules. These rules require the carrier to absolve the subscriber where the subscriber has not paid his or her bill. In that context, if the subscriber has not already paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the subscriber is absolved of liability for charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier for service provided during the first 30 days after the unauthorized change.⁸ Where the subscriber has paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the Commission’s rules require that the unauthorized carrier pay 150% of those charges to the authorized carrier, and the authorized carrier shall refund or credit to the subscriber 50% of all charges paid by the subscriber to the unauthorized carrier.⁹ Carriers should note that our actions in this order do not preclude the Commission from taking additional action, if warranted, pursuant to Section 503 of the Act.¹⁰

4. We received Complainant’s complaint on December 27, 2002, alleging that Complainant’s long distance service had been changed from MCI, Inc., (MCI) to MCI without Complainant’s authorization. Pursuant to Sections 1.719 and 64.1150 of our rules,¹¹ we notified

⁸ See 47 C.F.R. §§ 64.1140, 64.1160. Any charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier on the subscriber for service provided after this 30-day period shall be paid by the subscriber to the authorized carrier at the rates the subscriber was paying to the authorized carrier at the time of the unauthorized change. Id.

MCI of the complaint and MCI responded on February 28, 2003.¹² MCI states that another customer inadvertently gave Complainant's number to be switched. MCI, however, was unable to provide a letter of agency or a third party verification tape completed by the other customer. We find that MCI has failed to produce clear and convincing evidence that Complainant authorized a carrier change.¹³ Therefore, we find that MCI's actions resulted in an unauthorized change in Complainant's long distance service provider and we discuss MCI's liability below.¹⁴

5. Pursuant to Section 64.1170(b) our rules, MCI must forward to Complainant's authorized carrier an amount equal to 150% of all charges paid by the subscriber to MCI.¹⁵ Therefore, MCI must forward to Complainant's authorized carrier 150% of the amount, along with copies of any telephone bills issued from the company to the Complainant.¹⁶ Within ten days of receipt of this amount, Complainant's authorized carrier shall provide a refund or credit to Complainant in the amount of 50% of all charges paid by Complainant to MCI. Complainant has the option of asking Complainant's authorized carrier to re-rate MCI's charges based on Complainant's authorized carrier's rates and, on behalf of Complainant, seek from MCI, any re-rated amount exceeding 50% of all charges paid by Complainant to MCI. Complainant's authorized carrier must also send a notice to the Commission, referencing this Order, stating that it has given a refund or credit to Complainant.¹⁷ If Complainant's authorized carrier has not received the reimbursement required from MCI within 45 days of the release of this Order, Complainant's authorized carrier must notify the Commission and Complainant accordingly. Complainant's authorized carrier also must notify the Complainant of his or her right to pursue a claim against MCI for a refund of all charges paid to MCI.¹⁸

6. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 258, and Sections 0.141, 0.361 and 1.719 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.141, 0.361, 1.719, the complaint filed by Complainant against MCI IS GRANTED.

7. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 64.1170(b) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 64.1170(b), that MCI must forward to Complainant's

Such filing will be deemed to relate back to the filing date of Complainant's informal complaint so long as the formal complaint is filed within 45 days from the date this order is mailed or delivered electronically to Complainant.
