ORDER

Adopted: July 29, 2004

Released: July 30, 2004

By the Deputy Chief, Consumer Policy Division, Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau:

1. In this Order, we consider the complaint filed by Complainant<sup>1</sup> alleging that Connect America, Inc. (CAI) changed Complainant's telecommunications service provider without obtaining authorization and verification from Complainant in violation of the Commission's rules.<sup>2</sup> We conclude that CAI's actions did result in an unauthorized change in Complainant's telecommunications service provider and we grant Complainant's complaint.

2. In December 1998, the Commission released the Section 258 Order in which it adopted rules to implement Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934 (Act), as amended by the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (1996 Act).<sup>3</sup> Section 258 prohibits the practice of

No. 104-104, 110 Stat. 56 (1996); Implementation of the Subscriber Carrier Selection Changes Provisions of the Telecommunications Act of 1996; Policies and Rules Concerning Unauthorized Changes of Consumers' Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 94-129, Second Report and Order and Further Notice of Proposed Rule Making, 14 FCC Rcd 1508 (1998) (Section 258 Order), stayed in part, *MCI WorldCom v. Prior to the adoption of Section 258, the Commission had taken various steps to address the slamming problem. See, e.g., Policies and Rules Concerning Unauthorized Changes of Consumers' Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 94-129, Report and Order, 10 FCC Rcd 9560 (1995), stayed in part, 11 FCC Rcd 856 (1995); Policies and Rules Concerning Changing Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 91-64, 7 FCC Rcd 1038 (1992), reconsideration denied, 8 FCC Rcd 3215 (1993); Investigation of Access and Divestiture Related Tariffs, CC Docket No. 83-1145, Phase I, 101 F.C.C.2d 911, 101 F.C.C.2d 935, reconsideration denied, 102 F.C.C.2d 503 (1985).

“slamming,” the submission or execution of an unauthorized change in a subscriber’s selection of a provider of telephone exchange service or telephone toll service.<sup>4</sup> In the Section 258 Order, the Commission adopted aggressive new rules designed to take the profit out of slamming, broadened the scope of the slamming rules to encompass all carriers, and modified its existing requirements for the authorization and verification of preferred carrier changes. The rules require, among other things, that a carrier receive individual subscriber consent before a carrier change may occur.<sup>5</sup> Pursuant to Section 258, carriers are absolutely barred from changing a customer's preferred local or long distance carrier without first complying with one of the Commission's verification procedures.<sup>6</sup> Specifically, a carrier must: (1) obtain the subscriber's written or electronically signed authorization in a format that meets the requirements of Section 64.1130 authorization; (2) obtain confirmation from the subscriber via a toll-free number provided exclusively for the purpose of confirming orders electronically; or (3) utilize an independent third party to verify the subscriber's order.<sup>7</sup>

3. The Commission also has adopted liability rules. These rules require the carrier to absolve the subscriber where the subscriber has not paid his or her bill. In that context, if the subscriber has not already paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the subscriber is absolved of liability for charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier for service provided during the first 30 days after the unauthorized change.<sup>8</sup> Where the subscriber has paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the Commission’s rules require that the unauthorized carrier pay 150% of those charges to the authorized carrier, and the authorized carrier shall refund or credit to the subscriber 50% of all charges paid by the subscriber to the unauthorized carrier.<sup>9</sup> Carriers should note that our actions in this order do not preclude the Commission from taking additional action, if warranted, pursuant to Section 503 of the Act.<sup>10</sup>

4. We received Complainant’s complaint on March 26, 2003, alleging that Complainant’s telecommunications service provider had been changed from Qwest Communications, Inc. (Qwest) to CAI without Complainant’s authorization. Pursuant to Sections 1.719 and 64.1150 of our rules,<sup>11</sup> we notified CAI of the complaint and CAI responded

5. CAI states in its response that it acquired Complainant's account when it purchased the customer base of another carrier. Our rules allow a telecommunications provider to acquire all or part of another carrier's subscriber base without obtaining each subscriber's authorization and verification provided that the acquiring carrier comply with our streamlined procedures.<sup>13</sup> To comply with these procedures, the acquiring carrier must file with the Commission's Office of the Secretary, no later than 30 days before the planned transfer, a letter notification in CC Docket 00-257 that meets the requirements listed in Section 64.1120 (e)(1) of our rules, including proper customer notice.<sup>14</sup> CAI, however, failed to follow these procedures.<sup>15</sup> We find that CAI has failed to produce clear and convincing evidence that Complainant authorized a carrier change.<sup>16</sup> Therefore, we find that CAI's actions resulted in an unauthorized change in Complainant's long distance service provider and we discuss CAI's liability below.<sup>17</sup>

6. Pursuant to Section 64.1170(b) our rules, CAI must forward to Qwest an amount equal to 150% of all charges paid by the subscriber to CAI.<sup>18</sup> Therefore, CAI must forward to Qwest 150% of the amount, along with copies of any telephone bills issued from the company to the Complainant.<sup>19</sup> Within ten days of receipt of this amount, Qwest shall provide a refund or credit to Complainant in the amount of 50% of all charges paid by Complainant to CAI. Complainant has the option of asking Qwest to re-rate CAI's charges based on Qwest's rates and, on behalf of Complainant, seek from CAI, any re-rated amount exceeding 50% of all charges paid by Complainant to CAI. Qwest must also send a notice to the Commission, referencing this Order, stating that it has given a refund or credit to Complainant.<sup>20</sup> If Qwest has not received the reimbursement required from CAI within 45 days of the release of this Order, Qwest must notify the Commission and Complainant accordingly. Qwest also must
