by Competitive Local Exchange Carriers, Petition of U S West Communications, Inc.
for Forbearance from Regulation as a Dominant Carrier in the Phoenix, Arizona MSA

CC Docket Nos. 96-262, 94-1, 98-157; CCB/CPD File No. 98-63

NOTICE OF DISMISSAL OF PETITIONS FOR RECONSIDERATION AND CLARIFICATION

On January 8, 2004, the Wireline Competition Bureau issued a Public Notice requesting parties that had filed petitions for reconsideration and clarification in the above-referenced 1999 Access Reform Docket to file a supplemental notice indicating those issues that the parties still wish to be reconsidered or clarified.¹ The notice was issued because the petitions for reconsideration and clarification were filed several years ago, and the passage of time and intervening developments, including additional Commission orders and proceedings regarding pricing flexibility and the pricing of special access services, may have rendered the records developed in response to those petitions stale.²

The Public Notice further stated that the Commission would deem such petitions withdrawn and would dismiss them unless parties indicated an intent to pursue their respective petitions for reconsideration and clarification no later than 30 days after publication of the Public

¹ Parties Asked To Refresh Record Regarding Reconsideration of Rules Adopted in 1999 Access Reform Docket, Public Notice, DA 04-31 (Pricing Pol. ³ Public Notice at 2.

⁴ Parties Asked To Refresh Record Regarding Reconsideration of Rules Adopted in 1999 Access Reform Docket, 69 Fed. Reg. 2862 (Jan. 21, 2004).
