ORDER

Adopted: June 27, 2005

Released: June 30, 2005

By the Deputy Chief, Consumer Policy Division, Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau

1. In this Order, we consider complaint¹ alleging that Primus Telecommunications, Inc. (Primus) changed Complainant's telecommunications service provider without obtaining authorization and verification from Complainant in violation of the Commission's rules.² We conclude that Primus's actions did result in an unauthorized change in Complainant's telecommunications service providers and we grant Complainant's complaint.

2. In December 1998, the Commission released the Section 258 Order in which it adopted rules to implement section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934 (Act), as amended by the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (1996 Act).³ Section 258 prohibits the practice of “slamming,” the submission or execution of an unauthorized change in a subscriber’s selection of a provider of telephone exchange service or telephone toll service.⁴ In the Section 258 Order, the Commission adopted aggressive new rules designed to take the profit out of slamming, broadened the scope of the slamming rules to encompass all carriers, and modified its existing requirements for the authorization and verification of preferred carrier changes. The rules require, among other things, that a carrier receive individual subscriber consent before a carrier change may occur.⁵ Pursuant to section 258, carriers are absolutely barred from changing a customer's preferred local or long distance carrier without first complying with one of the Commission's verification procedures.⁶ Specifically, a carrier must: (1) obtain the subscriber's written or electronically signed authorization in a format that meets the requirements of section 64.1130 authorization; (2) obtain confirmation from the subscriber via a toll-free number provided exclusively for the purpose of confirming orders electronically; or (3) utilize an independent third party to verify the subscriber's order.⁷

3. The Commission also has adopted liability rules. These rules require the carrier to absolve the subscriber where the subscriber has not paid his or her bill. In that context, if the subscriber has not already paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the subscriber is absolved of liability for charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier for service provided during the first 30 days after the unauthorized change.⁸ Where the subscriber has paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the Commission’s rules require that the unauthorized carrier pay 150% of those charges to the authorized carrier, and the authorized carrier shall refund or credit to the subscriber 50% of all charges paid by the subscriber to the unauthorized carrier.⁹ Carriers should note that our actions in this Order do not preclude the Commission from taking additional action, if warranted, pursuant to section 503 of the Act.¹⁰

4. We received Complainant’s complaint on January 5, 2005, alleging that Complainant’s telecommunications service providers had been changed from Cognistate to Primus without Complainant’s authorization. Pursuant to sections 1.719 and 64.1150 of our rules,¹¹ we notified Primus of the complaint and Primus responded on February 22, 2005.¹² Primus's response, however failed to address the number that was listed on the complaint. Primus has failed to provide a letter of agency or third party verification as proof of the authorization for the switch of Complainant's service, as required by our rules.¹³ Therefore, we find that Primus's actions resulted in an unauthorized change in Complainant's telecommunications service provider and we discuss Primus's liability below.¹⁴

5. Primus must remove all charges incurred for service provided to Complainant for the first thirty days after the alleged unauthorized change in accordance with the Commission's liability rules.¹⁵ We have determined that Complainant is entitled to absolution for the charges incurred during the first thirty days after the unauthorized change occurred and that neither Cognistate nor Primus may pursue any collection against Complainant for those charges.¹⁶ Any charges imposed by Primus on the subscriber for service provided after this 30-day period shall be paid by the subscriber to Cognistate at the rates the subscriber was paying to the authorized carrier at the time of unauthorized change.¹⁷

6. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 258, and sections 0.141, 0.361 and 1.719 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.141, 0.361, 1.719, the complaint filed against Primus Telecommunications, Inc. IS GRANTED.

7. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to section 64.1170(d) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 64.1170(d), Complainant are entitled to absolution for the charges incurred during the first thirty days after the unauthorized change occurred and Cognistate nor Primus may not pursue any collection against Complainant for those charges.
