PLEADING CYCLE ESTABLISHED FOR MICHIGAN PAY TELEPHONE ASSOCIATION PETITION FOR DECLARATORY RULING

CC Docket No. 96-128

COMMENTS: June 22, 2006

REPLY COMMENTS: July 6, 2006

On May 22, 2006, the Michigan Pay Telephone Association (MPTA) filed a petition seeking a declaratory ruling that the Michigan Public Service Commission failed to apply the new services test (NST) with respect to AT&T Michigan's payphone usage rates. Specifically, MPTA asks the Commission to declare that: (1) the Michigan commission failed to apply the NST to AT&T Michigan's local usage sensitive services and failed to identify and apply a cost-based overhead allocation for local usage services to establish a cost-based rate for those services; (2) the Michigan commission improperly applied non-uniform overhead allocations to payphone services; (3) the Michigan commission's reliance on the non-cost-based overhead allocation of AT&T Michigan's retail toll usage services as the "comparable" service for determining whether the local usage rate satisfies the NST was improper and resulted in unjust, unreasonable and unlawful rates; (4) the Michigan commission's use of an overhead allocation for local usage violates the NST; (5) AT&T Michigan's current tariffed rate for local usage services available to payphone providers is unlawful and violates the NST, the FCC's Payphone Orders and the Communications Act. The MPTA also asks the Commission to preempt the Michigan commission's orders and require AT&T Michigan to establish a new payphone usage rate in compliance with the NST. Should that calculation result in a lower rate, the MPTA requests refunds for payphone service providers going back to April 15, 1997.
