ORDER

Adopted: September 29, 2006

Released: October 2, 2006

By the Deputy Chief, Consumer Policy Division, Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau:

1. In this Order, we consider the complaint filed by Complainant¹ alleging that Global Crossing Telecommunications, Inc. (Global) changed Complainant's telecommunications service provider without obtaining authorization and Global's actions did result in an unauthorized change in Complainant's telecommunications service provider and we grant Complainant's complaint.

2. In December 1998, the Commission released the Section 258 Order in which it adopted rules to implement Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934 (Act), as amended by the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (1996 Act).² Section 258 prohibits the practice of "slamming," the submission or execution of an unauthorized change in a subscriber's selection

No. 104-104, 110 Stat. 56 (1996); Implementation of the Subscriber Carrier Selection Changes Provisions of the Telecommunications Act of 1996; Policies and Rules Concerning Unauthorized Changes of Consumers' Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 94-129, Second Report and Order and Further Notice of Proposed Rule Making, 14 FCC Rcd 1508 (1998) (Section 258 Order), stayed in part, *MCI WorldCom v. June 27, 2000); Third Report and Order and Second Order on Reconsideration, 15 FCC Rcd 15996 (2000), Errata, DA No. 00-2163 (rel. Sept. 25, 2000), Erratum, DA No. 00-2192 (rel. Oct. 4, 2000), Order, FCC 01-67 (rel. Feb. 22, 2001); Third Order on Reconsideration and Second Further Notice of Proposed Rule Making, 18 FCC Rcd 5099 (2003); Order, 18 FCC Rcd 10,997 (2003). Prior to the adoption of Section 258, the Commission had taken various steps to address the slamming problem. See, e.g., Policies and Rules Concerning Unauthorized Changes of Consumers' Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 94-129, Report and Order, 10 FCC Rcd 9560 (1995), stayed in part, 11 FCC Rcd 856 (1995); Policies and Rules Concerning Changing Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 91-64, 7 FCC Rcd 1038 (1992), reconsideration denied, 8 FCC Rcd 3215 (1993); Investigation of Access and Divestiture Related Tariffs, CC Docket No. 83-1145, Phase I, 101 F.C.C.2d 911, 101 F.C.C.2d 935, reconsideration denied, 102 F.C.C.2d 503 (1985).

of a provider of telephone exchange service or telephone toll service.³ In the Section 258 Order, the Commission adopted aggressive new rules designed to take the profit out of slamming, broadened the scope of the slamming rules to encompass all carriers, and modified its existing requirements for the authorization and verification of preferred carrier changes. The rules require, among other things, that a carrier receive individual subscriber consent before a carrier change may occur.⁴ Pursuant to Section 258, carriers are absolutely barred from changing a customer's preferred local or long distance carrier without first complying with one of the Commission's verification procedures.⁵ Specifically, a carrier must: (1) obtain the subscriber's written or electronically signed authorization in a format that meets the requirements of Section 64.1130 authorization; (2) obtain confirmation from the subscriber via a toll-free number provided exclusively for the purpose of confirming orders electronically; or (3) utilize an independent third party to verify the subscriber's order.⁶

3. The Commission also has adopted liability rules. These rules require the carrier to absolve the subscriber where the subscriber has not paid his or her bill. In that context, if the subscriber has not already paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the subscriber is absolved of liability for charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier for service provided during the first 30 days after the unauthorized change.⁷ Where the subscriber has paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the Commission's rules require that the unauthorized carrier pay 150% of those charges to the authorized carrier, and the authorized carrier shall refund or credit to the subscriber 50% of all charges paid by the subscriber to the unauthorized carrier.⁸ Carriers should note that our actions in this order do not preclude the Commission from taking additional action, if warranted, pursuant to Section 503 of the Act.⁹

4. We received Complainant's complaint on June 30, 2005, alleging that Complainant's telecommunications service provider had been changed from NECC to ACN without Complainant's authorization. Pursuant to Sections 1.719 and 64.1150 of our rules,¹⁰ we notified ACN of the complaint and ACN responded on August 10, 2005.¹¹ ACN stated that Complainant's service was switched to ACN by the consumer via Complainant's local exchange carrier) LEC). We notified Global, ACN's underlying carrier of the complaint, in order to confirm that it had not mistakenly changed Complainant's interLATA service to ACN. Pursuant to Sections 1.719 and 64.1150 of our rules, we notified Global of the complaint and Global responded on October 12, 2005.¹² Global stated that it received a request from Complainant's LEC to change Complainant's service on September 8, 2004, to add Complainant's service to ACN's wholesale account. Global emphasized that Complainant's service was "for local toll service only."¹³ Global, however, failed to respond to the material issue of the complaint, namely, the unauthorized change of Complainant's interLATA service. We find, therefore, that Global has violated the Commission's carrier change rules.¹⁴

5. Global must secure the removal of all charges incurred for service provided to Complainant for the first thirty days after the alleged unauthorized change in accordance with the Commission's liability rules.¹⁵ We have determined that Complainant is entitled to absolution for the charges incurred during the first thirty days after the unauthorized change occurred and that neither NECC nor ACN may pursue any collection against Complainant for those charges.¹⁶ Any charges imposed by NECC on the subscriber for service provided after this 30-day period shall be paid by the subscriber to ACN at the rates the subscriber was paying to the authorized carrier at the time of the unauthorized change.¹⁷ Global must also switch the subscriber to the desired carrier at no cost to the subscriber.¹⁸

6. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 258, and Sections 0.141, 0.361 and 1.719 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.141, 0.361, 1.719, the complaint filed by Complainant against Global Crossing Telecommunications, Inc. IS GRANTED.
