ORDER

Adopted: January 30, 2006

Released: January 31, 2006

By the Deputy Chief, Consumer Policy Division, Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau:

1. In this Order, we consider the complaint filed by Complainant¹ alleging that Innovative Telephone (Innovative) changed Complainant's telecommunications service provider without obtaining authorization and verification from Complainant in violation of the Commission's rules.² We conclude that Innovative's actions did result in an unauthorized change in Complainant's telecommunications service provider and we grant Complainant's complaint.

2. In December 1998, the Commission released the Section 258 Order in which it adopted rules to implement Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934 (Act), as amended by the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (1996 Act).³ Section 258 prohibits the practice of

Prior to the adoption of Section 258, the Commission had taken various steps to address the slamming problem. See, e.g., Policies and Rules Concerning Unauthorized Changes of Consumers' Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 94-129, Report and Order, 10 FCC Rcd 9560 (1995), stayed in part, 11 FCC Rcd 856 (1995); Policies and Rules Concerning Changing Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 91-64, 7 FCC Rcd 1038 (1992), reconsideration denied, 8 FCC Rcd 3215 (1993); Investigation of (continued....)

“slamming,” the submission or execution of an unauthorized change in a subscriber’s selection of a provider of telephone exchange service or telephone toll service.⁴ In the Section 258 Order, the Commission adopted aggressive new rules designed to take the profit out of slamming, broadened the scope of the slamming rules to encompass all carriers, and modified its existing requirements for the authorization and verification of preferred carrier changes. The rules require, among other things, that a carrier receive individual subscriber consent before a carrier change may occur.⁵ Pursuant to Section 258, carriers are absolutely barred from changing a customer's preferred local or long distance carrier without first complying with one of the Commission's verification procedures.⁶ Specifically, a carrier must: (1) obtain the subscriber's written or electronically signed authorization in a format that meets the requirements of Section 64.1130 authorization; (2) obtain confirmation from the subscriber via a toll-free number provided exclusively for the purpose of confirming orders electronically; or (3) utilize an independent third party to verify the subscriber's order.⁷

3. The Commission also has adopted liability rules. These rules require the carrier to absolve the subscriber where the subscriber has not paid his or her bill. In that context, if the subscriber has not already paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the subscriber is absolved of liability for charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier for service provided during the first 30 days after the unauthorized change.⁸ Where the subscriber has paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the Commission’s rules require that the unauthorized carrier pay 150% of those charges to the authorized carrier, and the authorized carrier shall refund or credit to the subscriber 50% of all charges paid by the subscriber to the unauthorized carrier.⁹ Carriers should note that our actions in this order do not preclude the Commission from taking additional action, if warranted, pursuant to Section 503 of the Act.¹⁰

4. We received Complainant’s complaint on January 18, 2005, alleging that Complainant’s telecommunications service provider had been changed to Sprint Communications Company (Sprint) without Complainant’s authorization. We served Sprint on February 3, 2005, and Sprint responded on March 4, 2005. Sprint states that the switch in service was initiated by Complainant's local exchange carrier ("LEC") and it provided as evidence a copy of the Customer Account Record Exchange order from the LEC. Pursuant to Sections 1.719 and 64.1150 of our rules,¹¹ we notified Innovative Telephone (Innovative) of the complaint and Innovative responded on June 15, 2005. In its response, Innovative states that the switch was requested by Sprint. However, the evidence provided by Innovative was for a carrier change request well after the Complainant's service was switched to Sprint. We requested further evidence from Innovative on several occasions, but we did not receive any response. Therefore, we find that Innovative did not respond to our request regarding the change of Complainant's service. Innovative's failure to respond or provide proof of verification is presumed to be clear and convincing evidence of a violation.¹² Innovative's actions, therefore, resulted in a violation of our carrier change rules and we discuss Innovative's liability below.¹³

5. Innovative must secure the removal of the unauthorized charges incurred for service provided to Complainant for the first thirty days after the alleged unauthorized change in accordance with the Commission's liability rules.¹⁴ We have determined that Complainant is entitled to absolution for the charges incurred during the first thirty days after the unauthorized change occurred and that neither Sprint nor Innovative may pursue any collection against Complainant for those charges.¹⁵ Any charges imposed by Innovative on the subscriber for service provided after this 30-day period shall be paid by the subscriber to Innovative at the rates the subscriber was paying to the authorized carrier at the time of the unauthorized change.¹⁶ Innovative must also switch the subscriber to the desired carrier at no cost to the subscriber.¹⁷

6. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 258, and Sections 0.141, 0.361 and 1.719 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.141, 0.361, 1.719, the complaint filed by Complainant against Innovative IS GRANTED.

7. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 64.1170(d) of the

¹¹ 47 C.F.R. § 1.719 (Commission procedure for informal complaints filed pursuant to Section 258 of the Act); 47 C.F.R. § 64.1150 (procedures for resolution of unauthorized changes in preferred carrier).

¹² Id.

¹³ If Complainant is unsatisfied with the resolution of this complaint, Complainant may file a formal complaint with the Commission pursuant to Section 1.721 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.721. Such filing will be deemed to relate back to the filing date of Complainant's informal complaint so long as the formal complaint is filed within 45 days from the date this order is mailed or delivered electronically to Complainant. See 47 C.F.R. § 1.719.

¹⁴ See 47 C.F.R. § 64.1160(g).

¹⁵ See 47 C.F.R. § 64.1160(d).

¹⁶ See 47 C.F.R. §§ 64.1140, 64.1160.

¹⁷ See 47 C.F.R. § 64.1160.

Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 64.1170(d), Complainant is entitled to absolution for the charges incurred during the first thirty days after the unauthorized change occurred and neither Sprint nor Innovative may pursue any collection against Complainant for those charges.

8. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Order is effective upon release.
