Re: Final Bid Withdrawal Payment For Auction No. 37

Dear Mr. Tunis:

Ben Tunis Company, Inc. ("Tunis"), a participant in Auction No. 37, withdrew its high bid on FM construction permit FM006-C2 in that auction. Auction No. 62, the subsequent auction for the permit on which Tunis withdrew its high bid, has closed. As shown on Attachment A, in accordance with the Federal Communications Commission's ("Commission's") rules, we are now able to calculate Tunis's final bid withdrawal payment obligation.

Under the Commission's rules, a bidder that withdraws a high bid during the course of an auction is subject to a bid withdrawal payment equal to the difference between the amount of the withdrawn bid and the amount of the subsequent winning bid. If a high bid is withdrawn on a license or permit that remains unsold at the close of the auction, the withdrawing bidder will be required to make an interim payment equal to three percent (3%) of the net amount of the withdrawn bid.<sup>1</sup> This payment amount is deducted from any upfront payments or down payments deposited for this bidder's account with the Commission.<sup>2</sup> If, in a subsequent auction, that license or permit receives a winning bid in an amount equal to or greater than the withdrawn bid amount, then no final bid withdrawal payment will be assessed, and, upon appropriate request, the Commission will refund the interim three percent (3%) payment.<sup>3</sup> If in a subsequent auction, the winning bid for that license or permit is less than the bidder's withdrawn amount, then the bidder will be required to make a final bid withdrawal payment equal to either the difference between the bidder's net withdrawn bid and the subsequent net winning bid, or the
