DOMESTIC SECTION 214 APPLICATION FILED FOR THE TRANSFER OF CONTROL OF NORLIGHT TELECOMMUNICATIONS, INC. FROM JOURNAL COMMUNICATIONS, INC.
TO Q-COMM CORPORATION

STREAMLINED PLEADING CYCLE ESTABLISHED

WC Docket No. 06-227

Comments Due: January 5, 2007
Reply Comments Due: January 12, 2007

On December 4, 2006, Journal Communications, Inc. ("Journal" or "Transferor"), Norlight Telecommunications, Inc. ("Norlight"), and Q-Comm Corporation ("Q-Comm" or "Transferee") (collectively, "Applicants"), filed an application, pursuant to section 63.04 of the Commission's rules,<sup>1</sup> requesting authority to transfer control of Norlight to Q-Comm.<sup>2</sup>

Applicants assert that this transaction is entitled to presumptive streamlined treatment under section 63.03(b)(2)(i) of the Commission's rules because, upon completion of the proposed transaction, (a) Transferee will have a market share in the interstate, interexchange market of less than 10 percent, and (b) Transferee will provide competitive telephone exchange services or exchange access services (if at all) exclusively in areas served by a dominant local exchange carrier that is not a party to the transaction, and (c) none of the Applicants is dominant with respect to any service.<sup>3</sup>

Norlight, a Wisconsin corporation, provides facilities-based services over a regional fiber network to wholesale and commercial customers located primarily in its core service territory in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, and Wisconsin. Norlight also provides interexchange and data services in multiple states to serve the secondary offices of business customers that have a principal place of business in its core service territory.<sup>4</sup> Norlight is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Journal Company, a Wisconsin

<sup>2</sup> Applicants filed a supplement to their application on December 21, 2006. Applicants have also filed an application for transfer of control associated with authorization for international services. Any action on this domestic 214 application is without prejudice to Commission action on other related, pending applications.

corporation, which in turn is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Journal, a Wisconsin corporation that operates publishing, radio, and television broadcasting and printing services and does not provide telecommunications. Applicants state that the only other entity holding a 10 percent or greater indirect interest in Norlight is Matex, Inc., a U.S.-based real estate investment corporation with an interest of 10.7 percent in Journal.

Q-Comm, a privately-held Nevada corporation, is a holding company that does not provide telecommunications services but has the following U.S.-based subsidiaries that provide local exchange and interexchange services to residential and business customers: Kentucky Data Link, Inc. and its U.S.-based subsidiaries (Cinergy Telecommunications Networks-Ohio, Inc., Knoxville Data Link, Inc., and KDL of Virginia, Inc.) provide service in Arkansas, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Virginia, and West Virginia; Cinergy Communications Company provides service in Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio, and Tennessee; Cinergy Metronet, Inc. provides fiber-based video, voice, and high-speed data services to rural communities in Indiana.

Applicants state that the following individuals and entities hold a 10 percent or greater direct interest in Q-Comm: Al Cinelli and John Cinelli, both U.S. citizens, hold 50.59 percent and 11.47 percent voting interests, respectively; and Cinergy Telecommunications Holding Company, Inc. ("CTHCF"), a U.S.-based holding company, holds a 32.74 percent voting interest. Cinergy Investments, Inc. ("CII"), a U.S.-based holding company, holds a 32.74 percent voting interest in Q-Comm indirectly through CTHCF; Cinergy Corp., a U.S.-based holding company, holds a 32.74 percent voting interest in Q-Comm indirectly through CII; and Duke Energy Corporation, a U.S.-based energy company, holds a 32.74 percent voting interest in Q-Comm indirectly through Cinergy Corp. Applicants state that Duke Energy Corporation is a widely held public corporation and that no shareholder has a 10 percent or greater interest in Q-Comm. Applicants further state that, to their knowledge, Duke Energy Corporation does not hold a 10 percent or greater direct or indirect interest in any telecommunications entity except for its subsidiary DukeNet Communications, Inc., which provides telecommunications services in Georgia, North Carolina, and South Carolina, and is in the process of becoming certified to provide service in Florida and Virginia. Applicants state that Al Cinelli and John Cinelli do not have an interest in any telecommunications company except for those owned by Q-Comm.

Pursuant to the terms of a Stock Purchase Agreement dated November 13, 2006 among Journal, Norlight, and Q-Comm, Journal will sell to Q-Comm all of the stock of Norlight owned by Journal's subsidiary, The Journal Company. As a result, control of Norlight will be transferred to Q-Comm, and Norlight will be a wholly-owned subsidiary of Q-Comm. Applicants further state that the proposed transfer of control will not involve a change in the name under which Norlight currently operates, and that Norlight will continue to offer the services it currently offers with no change in the rates or terms and conditions of service.

Applicants assert that the proposed transaction will serve the public interest because it will provide Norlight and Q-Comm with access to each other's technical and management expertise and facilities, thereby allowing the companies to offer more advanced and competitive services to a broader customer base. Applicants further state that, because the proposed transaction will be transparent to consumers, Norlight will continue to provide service to customers without interruption and without a change in carrier.
