PLEADING CYCLE ESTABLISHED FOR PETITION FOR RULEMAKING TO PRESERVE POST-DISASTER COMMUNICATIONS

RM-11327

Comments Due: April 27, 2006
Reply Comments Due: May 12, 2006

On March 13, 2006, Evslin Consulting and pulver.com (Petitioners) filed a petition for rulemaking requesting the Federal Communications Commission (Commission) initiate a proceeding to ease the effect of long-term telephone outages in the event of natural disasters or other public crises. Petitioners indicated that the Commission should act soon to ensure that the consequence of outages to telecommunications services are swiftly mitigated prior to the time communications links can be restored. Petitioners urge the FCC to modify its rules to promote access to multiple technologies before another widespread emergency arises.

This Public Notice establishes certain procedural requirements relating to consideration of the petition. This matter shall be treated as a “permit-but-disclose” proceeding in accordance with the Commission's ex parte rules. See 47 C.F.R. §§ 1.1200, 1.1206. Persons making oral ex parte presentations are reminded that memoranda summarizing the presentations must contain summaries of the substance of the presentations and not merely a listing of the subjects discussed. More than a one or two sentence description of the views and arguments presented generally is required. See 47 C.F.R. § 1.1206(b). Other rules pertaining to oral and written ex parte presentations in permit-but-disclose proceedings are set forth in Section 1.1206(b) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.1206(b).
