ORDER

Adopted: March 6, 2007

Released: March 6, 2007

By the Acting Chief, Competition Policy Division:

1. In this Order, we dismiss as moot the Petition for Emergency Relief and Expedited Action filed by the Toll-Free Number Coalition (TFNC) on November 9, 2000, and the Petition for Emergency Relief filed by The Toll-Free Commerce Coalition (TTFCC) filed on November 14, 2000, both seeking to defer the release of the 855 toll free code by Database Management Services, Inc. (DSMI), which was scheduled for November 18, 2000.¹ However, the 855 toll-free code was not released because on November 17, 2000, Commission staff directed DSMI to postpone the release of the 855 code until further notice.² At this time, the 855 toll-free code has not been released. Therefore, the petitions of TFNC and TTFCC are moot.

2. ACCORDINGLY, IT IS ORDERED, pursuant to sections 4(i) and 251(e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. §§ 154(i), 251(e), and sections 0.91 and 0.291 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.91, 0.291, that the petitions of TFNC and TTFCC ARE DISMISSED.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

Christi Shewman
Acting Chief, Competition Policy Division
Wireline Competition Bureau

¹ Toll-Free Service Access Codes, CC Docket No. 95-155, Petition for Emergency Relief and Expedited Action, Toll Free Number Coalition (filed Nov. 9, 2000); Toll-Free Service Access Codes, CC Docket No. 95-155, Petition for Emergency Relief, The Toll-Free Commerce Coalition (filed Nov. 14, 2000) (together, Petitions). Among other things, petitioners raised issues regarding whether deferral would ensure the fair, equitable, and orderly allocation of 855 toll-free numbers. They argued that the SMS/800 toll free number reservation process favors Responsible Organizations (RespOrgs) using Mechanized Generic Interface (MGI) and "locks out" other RespOrgs (using Graphical User Interface (GUI) and dial-up (3279) systems). See Petitions.
