NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE

Adopted: July 18, 2007

Released: July 20, 2007

By the Chief, Video Division, Media Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture ("NAL") issued pursuant to Section 503(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the "Act"), and Section 1.80 of the Commission's Rules (the "Rules"),<sup>1</sup> by the Chief, Video Division, Media Bureau pursuant to authority delegated under Section 0.283 of the Rules,<sup>2</sup> we find that KTVU Partnership (the "Licensee"), licensee of Station KRXI-TV, Reno, Nevada (the "Station"), apparently willfully and repeatedly violated Section 73.670 of the Rules, by failing to comply with the limits on commercial matter in children's programming.<sup>3</sup> Based upon our review of the facts and circumstances before us, we conclude that the Licensee is apparently liable for a monetary forfeiture in the amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

II. BACKGROUND

2. In the Children's Television Act of 1990, Congress directed the Commission to adopt rules, inter alia, limiting the number of minutes of commercial matter that television stations may air during children's programming, and to consider in its review of television license renewal applications the extent to which the licensee has complied with such commercial limits.<sup>4</sup> Pursuant to this statutory mandate, the Commission adopted Section 73.670 of the Rules, which limits the amount of commercial matter which may be aired during children's programming to 10.5 minutes per hour on weekends and 12 minutes per hour on weekdays. The Commission also stated that a program associated with a product, in which commercials for that product are aired, would cause the entire program to be counted as commercial time (a "program-length commercial").<sup>5</sup>

3. On June 1, 2006, the Licensee filed its license renewal application (FCC Form 303-S) for Station KRXI-TV (the "Application") (File No. BRCT-20060601AQY). In response to Section IV,

Question 5 of the Application, the Licensee stated that, during the previous license term, the Station failed to comply with the limits on commercial matter in children's programming specified in Section 73.670 of the Rules. In Exhibit 25, the Licensee indicated that the Station exceeded the children's television commercial limits on eleven occasions during the fourth quarter of 2003. Of those eleven overages, six were five seconds in duration, one was ten seconds in duration, one was 26 seconds in duration, one was 40 seconds in duration, one was two minutes and twenty five seconds in duration, and one was two minutes and thirty seconds in duration. The Licensee attributed the overages to human error, and described the procedures it implemented to prevent future violations.

III. DISCUSSION

4. By the Licensee's admission, on eleven occasions, Station KRXI-TV broadcast material that exceeded the children's television commercial limits. Such action constitutes an apparent willful and repeated violation of Section 73.670. Although the Licensee argued that the overages resulted from human error, the Commission has repeatedly rejected human error and inadvertence as a basis for excusing violations of the children's television commercial limits.<sup>6</sup> Furthermore, corrective actions may have been taken to prevent subsequent violations of the children's television rules and policies, but that, too, does not relieve the Licensee of liability for the violations which have occurred.<sup>7</sup>

5. This NAL is issued pursuant to Section 503(b)(1)(B) of the Act. Under that provision, any person who is determined by the Commission to have willfully or repeatedly failed to comply with any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission shall be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty.<sup>8</sup> Section 312(f)(1) of the Act defines willful as "the conscious and deliberate commission or omission of [any] act, irrespective of any intent to violate" the law.<sup>9</sup> The legislative history to Section 312(f)(1) of the Act clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both Sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act,<sup>10</sup> and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the Section 503(b) context.<sup>11</sup> Section 312(f)(2) of the Act provides that "[t]he term 'repeated,' when used with reference to the commission or omission of any act, means the commission or omission of such act more than once or, if such commission or omission is continuous, for more than one day."<sup>12</sup>

6. The Commission's Forfeiture Policy Statement and Section 1.80(b)(4) of the Rules establish a base forfeiture amount of $8,000 for violation of Section 73.670.<sup>13</sup> In determining the appropriate forfeiture amount, we may adjust the base amount upward or downward by considering the factors enumerated in Section 503(b)(2)(D) of the Act, including "the nature, circumstances, extent and

7. In this case, the Licensee has acknowledged that it violated the children's television commercial limits on eleven occasions. For the reasons discussed above, we find that the Licensee is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of $5,000 for its apparent willful and repeated violation of Section 73.670.
