Dear Licensee:

This refers to your license renewal application for station KPPX(TV), Tolleson, AZ.

Under the Commission's rules implementing the Children's Television Act of 1990 (CTA),<sup>1</sup> each television broadcast station licensee has an obligation, during its license term, to air programming that serves the educational and informational needs of children through both the licensee's overall programming and programming "specifically designed" to educate and inform children (core programming).<sup>2</sup> In Policies and Rules Concerning the Children's Television Programming, Revision of Programming Policies for Television Broadcast Stations,<sup>3</sup> the Commission adopted several public information initiatives to improve the information to the public regarding programming broadcasters air to fulfill their statutory obligation. One of the public information initiatives requires licensees to provide to publishers of program guides, information identifying programming specifically designed to educate and inform children, including an indication of the age group for which the program is intended.<sup>4</sup> In the Children's Television Programming Order, the Commission stated its belief that "program guides are an effective means of providing parents with advance notice of scheduling of educational programs."<sup>5</sup> Moreover, the Commission indicated that this information would help parents to find appropriate programs for their children and others who want to monitor a station's compliance with the CTA.<sup>6</sup> The Commission acknowledged, however, that broadcasters cannot require program guide publishers to print this information.<sup>7</sup> Nonetheless, the Commission concluded that the information is more likely to be included in program listings if broadcasters regularly provide it.

On June 1, 2006, you filed the above-referenced license renewal application for station KPPX(TV) (File No. BRCT-20060601BJI). In Exhibit 23 to that application, you stated that a review of internal records revealed that program guide publishers had not been receiving the target age-range for KPPX(TV)'s core programming. You indicated that although program guide publishers usually do not publish such information, you have revised your procedures and now include such data in submissions to publishers of program guides.

You indicated that the station provided to program guide publishers information identifying core programming. Based upon the record before us, however, we think that an admonition is warranted for the station's failure to identify for program guides publishers the age group for which its core programming is targeted. Although we do not rule out more severe sanctions for violations of this nature in the future, we have determined that an admonition is appropriate at this time. Therefore, based upon the facts and circumstances before us, we ADMONISH you for the admitted violation of Section 73.673 described in station KPPX(TV)'s renewal application.

In evaluating an application for license renewal, the Commission's decision is governed by Section 309(k)(1) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the Act).<sup>8</sup> Section 309(k)(1) provides that if, upon consideration of the application and pleadings, we find that (1) the station has served the public interest, convenience, and necessity; (2) there have been no serious violations of the Act or the Commission's Rules; and (3) there have been no other violations which, taken together, constitute a pattern of abuse, we are to grant the renewal application.<sup>9</sup> If, however, the licensee fails to meet that standard, the Commission may deny the application – after notice and opportunity for a hearing under Section 309(e) of the Act – or grant the application “on terms and conditions that are appropriate, including a renewal for a term less than the maximum otherwise permitted.”<sup>10</sup>

On balance, we find that America 51, L.P.'s violation of Section 73.673 does not constitute “serious violations” of the Commission's Rules warranting designation for evidentiary hearing. Moreover, we find no evidence of violations that, when considered together, evidence a pattern of abuse. Further, we find that station KPPX(TV) served the public interest, convenience, and necessity during the subject license term. We will therefore grant the license renewal application below.
