ORDER

Adopted: October 25, 2007

Released: October 29, 2007

By the Deputy Chief, Consumer Policy Division, Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau:

1. In this Order, we consider the complaint filed by Complainant<sup>1</sup> alleging that Sage Telecom, Inc. (Sage) changed Complainant's telecommunications service provider without obtaining authorization and verification from Complainant in violation of the Commission's rules.<sup>2</sup> We conclude that Sage's actions did result in an unauthorized change in Complainant's telecommunications service provider and we grant Complainant's complaint.

2. In December 1998, the Commission released the Section 258 Order in which it adopted rules to implement Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934 (Act), as amended by the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (1996 Act).<sup>3</sup> Section 258 prohibits the practice of "slamming," the submission or execution of an unauthorized change in a subscriber's selection of

Prior to the adoption of Section 258, the Commission had taken various steps to address the slamming problem. See, e.g., Policies and Rules Concerning Unauthorized Changes of Consumers' Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 94-129, Report and Order, 10 FCC Rcd 9560 (1995), stayed in part, 11 FCC Rcd 856 (1995); Policies and Rules Concerning Changing Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 91-64, 7 FCC Rcd 1038 (1992), reconsideration denied, 8 FCC Rcd 3215 (1993); Investigation of Access and Divestiture Related Tariffs, CC Docket No. 83-1145, Phase I, 101 F.C.C.2d 911, 101 F.C.C.2d 935, reconsideration denied, 102 F.C.C.2d 503 (1985).

a provider of telephone exchange service or telephone toll service.<sup>4</sup> In the Section 258 Order, the Commission adopted aggressive new rules designed to take the profit out of slamming, broadened the scope of the slamming rules to encompass all carriers, and modified its existing requirements for the authorization and verification of preferred carrier changes. The rules require, among other things, that a carrier receive individual subscriber consent before a carrier change may occur.<sup>5</sup> Pursuant to Section 258, carriers are absolutely barred from changing a customer's preferred local or long distance carrier without first complying with one of the Commission's verification procedures.<sup>6</sup> Specifically, a carrier must: (1) obtain the subscriber's written or electronically signed authorization in a format that meets the requirements of Section 64.1130; (2) obtain confirmation from the subscriber via a toll-free number provided exclusively for the purpose of confirming orders electronically; or (3) utilize an independent third party to verify the subscriber's order.<sup>7</sup>

3. The Commission also has adopted liability rules. These rules require the carrier to absolve the subscriber where the subscriber has not paid his or her bill. In that context, if the subscriber has not already paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the subscriber is absolved of liability for charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier for service provided during the first 30 days after the unauthorized change.<sup>8</sup> Where the subscriber has paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the Commission's rules require that the unauthorized carrier pay 150% of those charges to the authorized carrier, and the authorized carrier shall refund or credit to the subscriber 50% of all charges paid by the subscriber to the unauthorized carrier.<sup>9</sup> Carriers should note that our actions in this order do not preclude the Commission from taking additional action, if warranted, pursuant to Section 503 of the Act.<sup>10</sup>

We received Complainant's complaint on May 29, 2007, alleging that Complainant's telecommunications service provider had been changed to Sage without Complainant's authorization. Pursuant to Sections 1.719 and 64.1150 of our rules,<sup>11</sup> we notified Sage of the complaint and Sage responded on July 23, 2007.<sup>12</sup> Sage states that authorization was received and confirmed through third party verification (TPV). We have reviewed the TPV filed with Sage's response, and we find that Sage's verifier failed to confirm a switch of interLATA service, in violation of our rules.<sup>13</sup> While Complainant initially agreed to switch his interLATA service, Complainant later made it clear to the third party verifier that Complainant did not want to switch his international service. As international service is part of interLATA service and one cannot give authorization to switch part of a single service, we find that the verifier did not obtain authorization to switch Complainant's interLATA service. In addition, after Complainant stated he did not want to switch international service, the verifier told Complainant that the order would be canceled. We find that Sage has failed to produce clear and convincing evidence of a valid authorized carrier change by Complainant.<sup>14</sup> Therefore, we find that Sage's actions did result in an unauthorized change in Complainant's telecommunications service and we discuss Sage's liability below.<sup>15</sup>

4. Pursuant to Section 64.1170(b) our rules, Sage must forward to AT&T, Inc. an amount equal to 150% of all charges paid by the subscriber to Sage along with copies of any telephone bills issued from Sage to the Complainant.<sup>16</sup> Within ten days of receipt of this amount, AT&T, Inc. shall provide a refund or credit to Complainant in the amount of 50% of all charges paid by Complainant to Sage. Complainant has the option of asking AT&T, Inc. to re-rate Sage charges based on AT&T, Inc.'s rates and, on behalf of Complainant, seek from Sage, any re-rated amount exceeding 50% of all charges paid by Complainant to Sage. AT&T, Inc. must also send a notice to the Commission, referencing this Order, stating that it has given a refund or credit to Complainant.<sup>17</sup> If AT&T, Inc. has not received the reimbursement required from Sage within 45 days of the release of this Order, AT&T, Inc. must notify the Commission and Complainant accordingly. AT&T, Inc. also must notify the Complainant of his or her right to pursue a claim against Sage for a refund of all charges paid to Sage.<sup>18</sup>

5. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 258 of the
