Dear Licensee:

This refers to your license renewal application for station WRGTV-TV, Dayton, Ohio.

Under the Commission's rules implementing the Children's Television Act of 1990 (CTA),¹ each television broadcast station licensee has an obligation, during its license term, to air programming that serves the educational and informational needs of children through both the licensee's overall programming and programming "specifically designed" to educate and inform children (core programming).² The Commission's rules require commercial licensees to provide information to the public about the shows they air to fulfill their obligation. Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii) of the Commission's Rules (Rules) requires each commercial television broadcast station to prepare and place in its public inspection file a Children's Television Programming Report for each calendar quarter reflecting, inter alia, the efforts it has made during the quarter to serve the educational needs of children.³ As set forth in Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii), licensees are also required to file the reports with the Commission and to publicize for the public the existence and location of the reports.

On June 1, 2005, you filed a renewal application (FCC Form 303-S) for station WRGTV-TV, Dayton, Ohio (File No. BRCT-20050601BCE). In Exhibit 24, you reported that you currently publicize the existence and location of station WRGTV-TV's Children's Television Programming Reports and that you have complied with this requirement for most of the license term. You also stated, however, that due to personnel changes at station WRGTV-TV, the notices regarding the existence and location of the Children's Television Programming Reports did not air for approximately one year and four months. You maintained that this oversight has been corrected.

Based upon the record before us and although we do not rule out more severe sanctions for violations of this nature in the future, we have determined that an admonition is appropriate at this time. Therefore, based upon the facts and circumstances before us, we ADMONISH you for the admitted violation of Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii) of the Rules described in station WRGT-TV's renewal application.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, a copy of this Letter shall be sent by First Class and Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested to the licensee at the address listed above, and to its counsel, Clifford M. Harrington, Esquire, Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman, LLP, 2300 N Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20037-1128.

Sincerely,

Barbara A. Kreisman
