NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE

Adopted: June 10, 2008

Released: June 10, 2008

By the Chief, Enforcement Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture ("NAL")¹, we find that America's Toner² apparently willfully or repeatedly violated section 227 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended ("Act"), and the Commission's related rules and orders, by delivering at least four unsolicited advertisements to the telephone facsimile machines of at least four consumers.³ Based on the facts and circumstances surrounding these apparent violations, we find that America's Toner is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of $18,000.

1 See 47 U.S.C. § 503(b)(1). The Commission has the authority under this section of the Act to assess a forfeiture against any person who has "willfully or repeatedly failed to comply with any of the provisions of this Act or of any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission under this Act" See also 47 U.S.C. § 503(b)(5) (stating that the Commission has the authority under this section of the Act to assess a forfeiture penalty against any person who does not hold a license, permit, certificate or other authorization issued by the Commission or an applicant for any of those listed instrumentalities so long as such person (A) is first issued a citation of the violation charged; (B) is given a reasonable opportunity for a personal interview with an official of the Commission, at the field office of the Commission nearest to the person's place of residence; and (C) subsequently engages in conduct of the type described in the citation).

2 According to publicly available information, America's Toner is also doing business as American Toner and Fiducia, Inc. Therefore, all references in this NAL to "America's Toner" encompass America's Toner as well as American Toner and Fiducia, Inc. America's Toner has offices at 96 Westmoreland Ave., Suite 13, Addison, IL 60101; 87 Eisenhower Ln S, Lombard, IL 60148-5409; 603 Country Club Drive, Bensenville, IL 60106; and 9919 E. 47th Place, Tulsa, OK 74146-4731. John David is listed as the contact person for America's Toner. Accordingly, all references in this NAL to "America's Toner" also encompass the foregoing individual and all other principals and officers of this entity, as well as the corporate entity itself.

3 See 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(C); 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(a)(3); see also Rules and Regulations Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, Report and Order and Third Order on Reconsideration, 21 FCC Rcd 3787 (2006).

II. BACKGROUND

2. Section 227(b)(1)(C) of the Act makes it “unlawful for any person within the United States, or any person outside the United States if the recipient is within the United States . . . to use any telephone facsimile machine, computer, or other device to send, to a telephone facsimile machine, an unsolicited advertisement.”⁴ The term “unsolicited advertisement” is defined in the Act and the Commission’s rules as “any material advertising the commercial availability or quality of any property, goods, or services which is transmitted to any person without that person’s prior express invitation or permission in writing or otherwise.”⁵ Under the Commission’s Rules, an “established business relationship”⁶ exception permits a party to deliver a message to a consumer if the sender has an established business relationship with the recipient and the sender obtained the number of the facsimile machine through the voluntary communication by the recipient, directly to the sender, within the context of the established business relationship, or through a directory, advertisement, or a site on the Internet to which the recipient voluntarily agreed to make available its facsimile number for public distribution.⁷

3. On July 21, 2006, in response to one or more consumer complaints alleging that America’s Toner had faxed unsolicited advertisements, the Bureau issued a citation⁸ to America’s Toner, pursuant to section 503(b)(5) of the Act.⁹ The Bureau cited America’s Toner for using a telephone facsimile machine, computer, or other device, to send unsolicited advertisements for toner and ink cartridges to a telephone facsimile machine, in violation of section 227 of the Act and the Commission’s related rules and orders. The citation, which was served by certified mail, return receipt requested, warned America’s Toner that subsequent violations could result in the imposition of monetary forfeitures of up to $11,000 per violation, and included a copy of the consumer complaints that formed the basis of the citation.¹⁰ The citation informed America’s Toner that within 30 days of the date of the citation, it could either request an interview with Commission staff, or could provide a written statement responding to the citation. America’s Toner responded to the citation. Although not requesting an interview, America’s Toner stated that “[a]ny faxes that were received by consumers other than Americas Toner customer were transmitted in error [sic]” and that the company was promoting to its own customers “via telephone and not by facsimile methods.”¹¹

4. Despite the citation’s warning that subsequent violations could result in the imposition of

⁶ An “established business relationship” is defined as a prior or existing relationship formed by a voluntary two-way communication “with or without an exchange of consideration, on the basis of an inquiry, application, purchase or transaction by the business or residential subscriber regarding products or services offered by such person or entity, which relationship has not been previously terminated by either party.” 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(f)(5).

monetary forfeitures, we have received four additional consumer complaints indicating that America's Toner continued to engage in such conduct after the citation was issued.¹² We base our action here specifically on four complaints filed by four consumers establishing that America's Toner continued to send four unsolicited advertisements to telephone facsimile machines after the date of the citation.¹³

5. Section 503(b) of the Act authorizes the Commission to assess a forfeiture of up to $11,000 for each violation of the Act or of any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission under the Act by a non-common carrier or other entity not specifically designated in section 503 of the Act.¹⁴ In exercising such authority, we are to take into account "the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require."¹⁵

III. DISCUSSION

A. Violations of the Commission's Rules Restricting Unsolicited Facsimile Advertisements

6. We find that America's Toner apparently violated section 227 of the Act and the Commission's related rules and orders by using a telephone facsimile machine, computer, or other device to send at least four unsolicited advertisements to the four consumers identified in the Appendix. This NAL is based on evidence that four consumers received unsolicited fax advertisements from America's Toner after the Bureau's citation. The facsimile transmissions advertise toner cartridges. Further, according to the complaints, the consumers neither had an established business relationship with America's Toner nor gave America's Toner permission to send the facsimile transmissions.¹⁶ The faxes at issue here therefore fall within the definition of an "unsolicited advertisement."¹⁷ Based on the entire record, including the consumer complaints, we conclude that America's Toner apparently violated section

¹⁶ See, e.g., complaint dated August 16, 2007, from Brenda Van Buren (stating that she has never done any business with the fax advertiser, never made an inquiry or application to the fax advertiser, and never gave permission for the company to send the fax). The complainants involved in this action are listed in the Appendix.

¹⁷ See 47 U.S.C. § 227(a)(4); 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(f)(13) (definition previously at § 64.1200(f)(10)).

227 of the Act and the Commission's related rules and orders by sending four unsolicited advertisements to four consumers' facsimile machines.

B. Proposed Forfeiture

7. We find that America's Toner is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of $18,000. Although the Commission's Forfeiture Policy Statement does not establish a base forfeiture amount for violating the prohibition against using a telephone facsimile machine to send unsolicited advertisements, the Commission has previously considered $4,500 per unsolicited fax advertisement to be an appropriate base amount.¹⁸ We apply that base amount to each of the four apparent violations. Thus, a total forfeiture of $18,000 is proposed. America's Toner will have the opportunity to submit evidence and arguments in response to this NAL to show that no forfeiture should be imposed or that some lesser amount should be assessed.¹⁹

IV. CONCLUSION AND ORDERING CLAUSES

8. We have determined that America's Toner apparently violated section 227 of the Act and the Commission's related rules and orders by using a telephone facsimile machine, computer, or other device to send at least four unsolicited advertisements to the four consumers identified in the Appendix. We have further determined that America's Toner is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of $18,000.
