LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE

Adopted: January 23, 2008

By the Chief, Video Division, Media Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture (“NAL”) issued pursuant to Section 503(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the “Act”), and Section 1.80 of the Commission’s Rules (the “Rules”),¹ by the Chief, Video Division, Media Bureau pursuant to authority delegated under Section 0.283 of the Rules,² we find that Griffin Entities, L.L.C. (the “Licensee”), licensee of Station KWTV(TV), Oklahoma City, Oklahoma (the “Station”), apparently willfully and repeatedly violated Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii) of the Rules, by failing to publicize the existence and location of its Children’s Television Programming Reports.³ Based upon our review of the facts and circumstances before us, we conclude that the Licensee is apparently liable for a monetary forfeiture in the amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

II. BACKGROUND

2. Under the Commission’s rules implementing the Children’s Television Act of 1990 (CTA),⁴ each television broadcast station licensee has an obligation, during its license term, to air programming that serves the educational and informational needs of children through both the licensee’s overall programming and programming “specifically designed” to educate and inform children (core programming).⁵ The Commission’s rules require commercial licensees to provide information to the public about the shows they air to fulfill their obligation. Subsection 73.3526(e)(11)(iii) of the Rules requires each commercial television broadcast station to prepare and place in its public inspection file a Children’s Television Programming Report (FCC Form 398) for each calendar quarter reflecting, inter alia, the efforts it has made during the quarter to serve the educational needs of children. As set forth in Subsection 73.3526(e)(11)(iii), licensees are also required to file the reports with the Commission and to publicize for the public the existence and location of the reports.

3. On January 30, 2006, the Licensee filed its license renewal application (FCC Form 303-S) for Station KWTW(TV) (the “Application”) (File No. BRCT-20060130AMU). In response to Section IV, Question 10 of the Application, the Licensee stated that, it had failed to publicize the existence and location of the Station’s Children’s Television Programming Reports, as set forth in Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii) of the Rules. In Exhibit 1 and in a June 15, 2006 amendment to its Application, the Licensee indicated that, the Station has publicized the existence and location of its Children’s Television Programming Reports since January 6, 2006. The Licensee stated that prior to January 6, 2006, any persons who called the Station regarding the Children’s Television Programming Reports were informed as to the existence and location of the reports. Moreover, the Licensee claimed that although it did not “directly” publicize the existence and location of the Children’s Television Programming Reports, its programming schedule was available throughout the license term through the Station’s website. The Licensee also reported that it timely filed each required Children’s Television Programming Report during the license term, and that all of these reports were available to all persons with internet access. The Licensee argued that the availability of its Children’s Television Programming Reports and other actions described in its Application should mitigate its failure to “directly” publicize the existence and location of the reports.

III. DISCUSSION

4. The Licensee’s failure to publicize the existence and location of the Children’s Television Programming Reports constitutes an apparent willful and repeated violation of Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii). This NAL is issued pursuant to Section 503(b)(1)(B) of the Act. Under that provision, any person who is determined by the Commission to have willfully or repeatedly failed to comply with any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission shall be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty.⁶ Section 312(f)(1) of the Act defines willful as “the conscious and deliberate commission or omission of [any] act, irrespective of any intent to violate” the law.⁷ The legislative history to Section 312(f)(1) of the Act clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both Sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act,⁸ and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the Section 503(b) context.⁹ Section 312(f)(2) of the Act provides that “[t]he term ‘repeated,’ when used with reference to the commission or omission of any act, means the commission or omission of such act more than once or, if such commission or omission is continuous, for more than one day.”¹⁰

5. The Commission’s Forfeiture Policy Statement and Section 1.80(b)(4) of the Rules establish a base forfeiture amount of $10,000 for violation of Section 73.3526.¹¹ In determining the appropriate forfeiture amount, we may adjust the base amount upward or downward by considering the factors enumerated in Section 503(b)(2)(D) of the Act, including “the nature, circumstances, extent and gravity of the violation, and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require.”¹²

6. In this case, the Licensee's violation apparently continued throughout the license term. Specifically, it indicated that it began publicizing the existence and location of the Children's Television Programming Reports only in January 2006. Accordingly, we find that the Licensee is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of $10,000 for its apparent willful and repeated violation of Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii).
