ORDER

Adopted: July 25, 2008

Released: July 31, 2008

By the Deputy Chief, Consumer Policy Division, Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau:

1. In this Order, we consider the complaint¹ alleging that Verizon changed Complainant's telecommunications service provider without obtaining authorization and verification from Complainant in violation of the Commission's rules.² We conclude that Verizon's actions did result in an unauthorized change in Complainant's telecommunications service provider and we grant Complainant's complaint.

2. In December 1998, the Commission released the Section 258 Order in which it adopted rules to implement Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934 (Act), as amended by the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (1996 Act).³ Section 258 prohibits the practice of "slamming," the submission or execution of an unauthorized change in a subscriber's selection

Prior to the adoption of Section 258, the Commission had taken various steps to address the slamming problem. See, e.g., Policies and Rules Concerning Unauthorized Changes of Consumers' Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 94-129, Report and Order, 10 FCC Rcd 9560 (1995), stayed in part, 11 FCC Rcd 856 (1995); Policies and Rules Concerning Changing Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 91-64, 7 FCC Rcd 1038 (1992), reconsideration denied, 8 FCC Rcd 3215 (1993); Investigation of Access and Divestiture Related Tariffs, CC Docket No. 83-1145, Phase I, 101 F.C.C.2d 911, 101 F.C.C.2d 935, reconsideration denied, 102 F.C.C.2d 503 (1985).

of a provider of telephone exchange service or telephone toll service.⁴ In the Section 258 Order, the Commission adopted aggressive new rules designed to take the profit out of slamming, broadened the scope of the slamming rules to encompass all carriers, and modified its existing requirements for the authorization and verification of preferred carrier changes. The rules require, among other things, that a carrier receive individual subscriber consent before a carrier change may occur.⁵ Pursuant to Section 258, carriers are absolutely barred from changing a customer's preferred local or long distance carrier without first complying with one of the Commission's verification procedures.⁶ Specifically, a carrier must: (1) obtain the subscriber's written or electronically signed authorization in a format that meets the requirements of Section 64.1130; (2) obtain confirmation from the subscriber via a toll-free number provided exclusively for the purpose of confirming orders electronically; or (3) utilize an independent third party to verify the subscriber's order.⁷

3. The Commission also has adopted liability rules. These rules require the carrier to absolve the subscriber where the subscriber has not paid his or her bill. In that context, if the subscriber has not already paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the subscriber is absolved of liability for charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier for service provided during the first 30 days after the unauthorized change.⁸ Where the subscriber has paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the Commission's rules require that the unauthorized carrier pay 150% of those charges to the authorized carrier, and the authorized carrier shall refund or credit to the subscriber 50% of all charges paid by the subscriber to the unauthorized carrier.⁹ Carriers should note that our actions in this order do not preclude the Commission from taking additional action, if warranted, pursuant to Section 503 of the Act.¹⁰

4. We received Complainant's complaint on January 28, 2008, alleging that Complainant's telecommunications service provider had been changed from Verizon to Qwest without Complainant's authorization. Pursuant to Sections 1.719 and 64.1150 of our rules¹¹, we notified Qwest of the complaint and Qwest responded on February 8, 2008.¹² In its response,

⁸ See 47 C.F.R. §§ 64.1140, 64.1160. ¹² Qwest Corporation's Response to Informal Complaint No. IC 08-S001929, received February 8, 2008.

Qwest stated that it did not receive a notice of change away from Qwest by Complainant's local exchange carrier, Verizon. Pursuant to Sections 1.719 and 64.1150 of our rules¹³, we notified Verizon of the complaint and Verizon responded on July 18, 2008.¹⁴ Verizon states that a switch error occurred and the customer's services remained with Qwest in error. Therefore, we find that Verizon caused an unreasonable delay in the execution of the switch of Complainant's services away from Qwest¹⁵ and therefore, we find that Verizon's actions were in violation of our carrier change rules, and we discuss Verizon's liability below.¹⁶

5. Verizon must secure the removal of all charges incurred for service provided to Complainant by Verizon after 30 days following the unreasonable delay in accordance with the Commission's liability rules.¹⁷ We have determined that Complainant is entitled to absolution for the charges incurred during the first thirty days after the unreasonable delay occurred and that neither Verizon nor Qwest may pursue any collection against Complainant for those charges.¹⁸ Moreover, any charges imposed by Verizon on the subscriber for service provided after this 30-day period shall be paid by the subscriber to Qwest at the rate(s) the subscriber should have been paying to Qwest for the time period in question.¹⁹

6. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 258, and Sections 0.141, 0.361 and 1.719 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.141, 0.361, 1.719, the complaint filed against Verizon IS GRANTED.

7. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 64.1170(d) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 64.1170(d), Complainant is entitled to absolution for the charges incurred during the first thirty days after the unauthorized change occurred and Qwest nor Verizon may pursue any collection against Complainant for those charges.

¹³ 47 C.F.R. § 1.719 (Commission procedure for informal complaints filed pursuant to Section 258 of the Act); 47 C.F.R. § 64.1150 (procedures for resolution of unauthorized changes in preferred carrier).

¹⁶ If Complainant is unsatisfied with the resolution of this complaint, Complainant may file a formal complaint with the Commission pursuant to Section 1.721 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.721. Such filing will be deemed to relate back to the filing date of Complainant's informal complaint so long as the formal complaint is filed within 45 days from the date this order is mailed or delivered electronically to Complainant. See 47 C.F.R. § 1.719.

¹⁷ As the LEC's unreasonable delay in the execution of the switch caused the unauthorized charges to be billed by the Complainant's prior authorized carrier, it must secure the removal of these charges.

¹⁹ See 47 C.F.R. § 64.1160(e).

8. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Order is effective upon release.
