ORDER ON RECONSIDERATION

Adopted: July 30, 2008

Released: July 30, 2008

By the Chief, Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau:

1. In this Order, we grant a petition filed by Main Street Telephone Company (Main Street) asking us to reconsider a finding that Main Street changed the Complainant's telecommunications service provider in violation of the Commission's rules by failing to obtain proper authorization and verification.¹ On reconsideration, we find that Main Street's actions did not violate the Commission's carrier change rules.² We therefore grant Main Street's Petition and deny the complaint.

I. BACKGROUND

2. In December 1998, the Commission adopted rules prohibiting the practice of "slamming," the submission or execution of an unauthorized change in a subscriber's selection of a provider of telephone exchange service or telephone toll service.³ The rules were designed to take the profit out of slamming.⁴ The Commission applied the rules to all wireline carriers,⁵ and modified its existing requirements for the authorization and verification of preferred carrier changes.⁶

¹ See Application for Review of Action Taken Pursuant to Delegated Authority of Main Street Telephone Company (filed April 25, 2008) seeking reconsideration of Main Street Telephone Company, 23 FCC Rcd 5129 (2008) (Division Order), issued by the Consumer Policy Division (Division), Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau (CGB). Main Street's filing is being treated as a Petition for Reconsideration pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 405 and 47 C.F.R. § 1.106, and we may properly consider the merits of the Petition because it was filed within thirty days of release of the Division Order. Cf. Southern Union Gas Company, 15 FCC Rcd 10995, 10996 (2000) (treating a petition to revoke as a petition for reconsideration); Burlington Cablevision, Inc., 13 FCC Rcd 772 (1998) (treating an application for review as a petition for reconsideration).

⁴ See Implementation of the Subscriber Carrier Selection Changes Provisions of the Telecommunications Act of 1996; Policies and Rules Concerning Unauthorized Changes of Consumers' Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 94-129, Second Report and Order and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 14 FCC Rcd 1508, 1512, para. 4 (1998) (Section 258 Order). See also id. at 1518-19, para. 13.

⁵ See id. at 1560, para. 85. CMRS providers were exempted from the verification requirements. See Section 258 Order at 1560-61, para. 85.

⁶ See Section 258 Order, 14 FCC Rcd at 1549, para. 66.

3. The rules require that a submitting carrier receive individual subscriber consent before a carrier change may occur.⁷ Specifically, a carrier must: (1) obtain the subscriber's written or electronically signed authorization; (2) obtain confirmation from the subscriber via a toll-free number provided exclusively for the purpose of confirming orders electronically; or (3) utilize an independent third party to verify the subscriber's order.⁸

4. The Commission also adopted liability rules for carriers that engage in slamming.⁹ If the subscriber has not already paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the subscriber is absolved of liability for charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier for service provided during the first 30 days after the unauthorized change.¹⁰ Where the subscriber has paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the unauthorized carrier must pay 150% of those charges to the authorized carrier, and the authorized carrier must refund or credit to the subscriber 50% of all charges paid by the subscriber to the unauthorized carrier.¹¹

5. The Commission received a complaint on December 31, 2007, alleging that Complainant's telecommunications service provider had been changed to Main Street without Complainant's authorization.¹² Pursuant to Sections 1.719 and 64.1150 of the Commission's rules,¹³ the Division notified Main Street of the complaint.¹⁴ In response, Main Street stated it received authorization for enrollment in a Main Street calling plan from the Complainant and submitted information in support of that assertion.¹⁵ The Division determined that the data Main Street submitted did not include several pieces of information required to be included in a letter of agency (LOA). The Division found that Main Street failed to produce clear and convincing evidence that Complainant authorized a carrier change and, therefore, that Main Street's actions resulted in an unauthorized change in Complainant's telecommunications service provider.¹⁶ Main Street seeks reconsideration of the Division Order.

⁷ See 47 C.F.R. § 64.1120. See also 47 U.S.C. § 258(a) (barring carriers from changing a customer's preferred local or long distance carrier without first complying with one of the Commission's verification procedures).

⁸ See 47 C.F.R. § 64.1120(c). Section 64.1130 details the requirements for letter of agency form and content for written or electronically signed authorizations. 47 C.F.R. § 64.1130.

⁹ See 47 C.F.R. §§ 64.1140, 64.1160-70.

¹⁰ See 47 C.F.R. §§ 64.1140, 64.1160 (any charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier on the subscriber for service provided after this 30-day period shall be paid by the subscriber to the authorized carrier at the rates the subscriber was paying to the authorized carrier at the time of the unauthorized change).

II. DISCUSSION

6. Based on the record before us, we reverse the Division Order and grant the Petition. As discussed below, Main Street did not violate the Commission's carrier change rules.

7. In its Petition, Main Street contends there is no evidence that it changed the preferred telecommunications carrier for Complainant's telephone number to itself or any other carrier. Instead, Main Street states that Complainant purchased Main Street's Save4Less Plan, which is a dial-around service that allows the making of domestic calls from any phone anywhere in the United States and, as such, did not require any change in the preferred carrier for Complainant's telephone number.¹⁷ Main Street argues that the Division erroneously found that it switched Complainant's long distance carrier, and therefore that the Division should reverse the Division Order and grant the Petition.

8. Upon further review, we agree with Main Street that the complaint involves a dial-around long distance service, and not a switch of presubscribed long distance service. Consequently, there was no violation of the Commission's carrier change rules. Accordingly, we grant the Petition.

III. ORDERING CLAUSES

9. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 258, and Sections 0.141, 0.361, 1.106 and 1.719 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.141, 0.361, 1.106, 1.719, the petition filed by Main Street Telephone Company on April 25, 2008, IS GRANTED and the complaint filed against Main Street Telephone Company on December 31, 2007, IS DENIED.

10. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Order is effective UPON RELEASE.
