ORDER

Adopted: August 26, 2008

Released: August 28, 2008

By the Deputy Chief, Consumer Policy Division, Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau:

1. In this Order, we consider the complaint<sup>1</sup> alleging that Nationwide Long Distance Service (NLDS) changed Complainant's telecommunications service provider without obtaining authorization and verification from Complainant in violation of the Commission's rules.<sup>2</sup> We conclude that NLDS's actions did result in an unauthorized change in Complainant's telecommunications service provider and we grant Complainant's complaint.

2. In December 1998, the Commission released the Section 258 Order in which it adopted rules to implement Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934 (Act), as amended by the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (1996 Act).<sup>3</sup> Section 258 prohibits the practice of "slamming," the submission or execution of an unauthorized change in a subscriber's selection of

Prior to the adoption of Section 258, the Commission had taken various steps to address the slamming problem. See, e.g., Policies and Rules Concerning Unauthorized Changes of Consumers' Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 94-129, Report and Order, 10 FCC Rcd 9560 (1995), stayed in part, 11 FCC Rcd 856 (1995); Policies and Rules Concerning Changing Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 91-64, 7 FCC Rcd 1038 (1992), reconsideration denied, 8 FCC Rcd 3215 (1993); Investigation of Access and Divestiture Related Tariffs, CC Docket No. 83-1145, Phase I, 101 F.C.C.2d 911, 101 F.C.C.2d 935, reconsideration denied, 102 F.C.C.2d 503 (1985).

a provider of telephone exchange service or telephone toll service.<sup>4</sup> In the Section 258 Order, the Commission adopted aggressive new rules designed to take the profit out of slamming, broadened the scope of the slamming rules to encompass all carriers, and modified its existing requirements for the authorization and verification of preferred carrier changes. The rules require, among other things, that a carrier receive individual subscriber consent before a carrier change may occur.<sup>5</sup> Pursuant to Section 258, carriers are absolutely barred from changing a customer's preferred local or long distance carrier without first complying with one of the Commission's verification procedures.<sup>6</sup> Specifically, a carrier must: (1) obtain the subscriber's written or electronically signed authorization in a format that meets the requirements of Section 64.1130; (2) obtain confirmation from the subscriber via a toll-free number provided exclusively for the purpose of confirming orders electronically; or (3) utilize an independent third party to verify the subscriber's order.<sup>7</sup>

3. The Commission also has adopted liability rules. These rules require the carrier to absolve the subscriber where the subscriber has not paid his or her bill. In that context, if the subscriber has not already paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the subscriber is absolved of liability for charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier for service provided during the first 30 days after the unauthorized change.<sup>8</sup> Where the subscriber has paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the Commission's rules require that the unauthorized carrier pay 150% of those charges to the authorized carrier, and the authorized carrier shall refund or credit to the subscriber 50% of all charges paid by the subscriber to the unauthorized carrier.<sup>9</sup> Carriers should note that our actions in this order do not preclude the Commission from taking additional action, if warranted, pursuant to Section 503 of the Act.<sup>10</sup>

4. We received Complainant's complaint on May 19, 2008, alleging that Complainant's telecommunications service provider had been changed to NLDS without Complainant's authorization. Pursuant to Sections 1.719 and 64.1150 of our rules,<sup>11</sup> we notified

NLDS of the complaint and NLDS responded on July 1, 2008.<sup>12</sup> NLDS stated that authorization was received through third party verification (TPV). We have reviewed the TPV filed with NLDS's response and it is unclear from the verification if the verifier obtained a confirmation whether the person on the call was authorized to make the carrier change. The verifier asked "are you 18 years old or older and duly authorized by the account owner to make changes to and/or incur charges on this telephone account..." The person on the call responded "yes". Because the verifier used the term "and/or", the person on the call could have been responding "yes" to the question of being authorized to "incur charges", or to the question of being authorized to "make changes", or both. We find that NLDS did not provide clear and convincing evidence that the person on the call was authorized to make the carrier change.<sup>13</sup> Therefore, we find that NLDS' actions resulted in an unauthorized change in Complainant's telecommunications service provider and we discuss NLDS' liability below.<sup>14</sup>

5. Pursuant to Section 64.1170(b) our rules, NLDS must forward to Embarq an amount equal to 150% of all charges paid by the subscriber to NLDS.<sup>15</sup> Therefore, NLDS must forward to Embarq 150% of the amount, along with copies of any telephone bills issued from the company to the Complainant.<sup>16</sup> Within ten days of receipt of this amount, Embarq shall provide a refund or credit to Complainant in the amount of 50% of all charges paid by Complainant to NLDS. Complainant has the option of asking NLDS to re-rate NLDS's charges based on Embarq's rates and, on behalf of Complainant, seek from NLDS, any re-rated amount exceeding 50% of all charges paid by Complainant to NLDS. NLDS must also send a notice to the Commission, referencing this Order, stating that it has given a refund or credit to Complainant.<sup>17</sup> If Embarq has not received the reimbursement required from NLDS within 45 days of the release of this Order, Embarq must notify the Commission and Complainant accordingly. Embarq also must notify the Complainant of his or her right to pursue a claim against NLDS for a refund of all charges paid to NLDS.<sup>18</sup>

6. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 258, and Sections 0.141, 0.361 and 1.719 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.141, 0.361, 1.719, the complaint filed against Such filing will be deemed to relate back to the filing date of Complainant's informal complaint so long as the formal complaint is filed within 45 days from the date this order is mailed or delivered electronically to Complainant. 7. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 64.1170(b) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 64.1170(b), that SBA must forward to Embarq an amount equal to 150% of all charges paid by the subscriber along with copies of any telephone bills issued from the company to the Complainant within ten (10) days of the release of this order.
