Re: Interim Default Payment Obligation for Auction 62

Dear Mr. Reier:

This letter provides notice of your interim default payment obligation with respect to the default arising out of a Federal Communications Commission ("Commission") auction of FM broadcast construction permits ("Auction 62"). You were the winning bidder on FM broadcast construction permit FM411-C2 (Ennis, MT) in Auction 62.¹ As described below, you defaulted on your final payment obligation for the winning bid. Accordingly, this letter sets forth your interim default payment obligation for your defaulted bid and dismisses your Form 301 long-form application.²

On September 4, 2007, the Media Bureau ("Bureau") announced that it was prepared to grant your application for permit FM411-C2 from Auction 62.³ The Bureau also announced that by no later than September 18, 2007, you were required to submit your final payment for that permit in accordance with the procedures adopted in the Broadcast First Report and Order.⁴ If the payment was not received by that date, you had until October 2, 2007 to submit the payment plus a late fee equal to five percent of the amount due.⁵ Your net winning bid for permit FM411-C2 was $241,800.00.⁶ The Bureau applied the amount on deposit for permit FM411-C2 totaling $48,360.00 towards the final payment due.⁷ You were required to pay the remaining balance of $193,440.00 for FM broadcast construction permit FM411-C2 and you did not make a payment on the remaining balance.

Accordingly, you are considered to be in default on FM broadcast construction permit FM411-C2 for which you were the high bidder in Auction 62, your long-form application is dismissed, and you are subject to the applicable default payment.⁸ Under the Commission's Rules ("Rules"), a bidder who fails to timely remit the required down or final payment for a license or permit for which it was the high bidder is in default, its application is dismissed, and it is subject to a default payment.⁹ The default payment has two components. The first component is the difference between the bidder's net defaulted bid and the subsequent net winning bid, or the difference between the bidder's gross defaulted bid and the subsequent gross winning bid, whichever is less, the next time the license or permit is offered by the Commission (so long as the subsequent winning bid is less than the defaulted bid).¹⁰ The second component of the default payment is an additional payment equal to three percent (3%) of the defaulter's bid, or the subsequent winning bid, whichever is less.¹¹ If either bid amount is subject to a bidding credit, the three percent (3%) will be calculated using the same bid amounts and basis (net or gross bids) as in the first component of the default payment.¹² In the event that the subsequent winning bid is greater than or equal to the defaulted bid, the total default payment is equal to three percent (3%) of the defaulted bid.¹³ Since the Commission cannot determine the full amount of the default payment that is owed until there is a subsequent winning bid for the license, the Commission assesses an interim payment amounting to between three and twenty percent of the net winning bid.¹⁴ The remainder, if any, is assessed once a subsequent winning

¹¹ Id. Pursuant to recent modifications to the rule governing default payments, the percentage of the applicable bid to be assessed as an additional payment for defaults in a particular auction is established in advance of the auction. Since those modifications were not in effect prior to the beginning of this auction, the previous rule will apply. Accordingly, the additional default payment is three percent of the applicable bid. See Implementation of the Commercial Spectrum Enhancement Act and Modernization of the Commission's Competitive Bidding Rules and Procedures, WT Docket No. 05-211, Report and Order, 21 FCC Rcd 891, 901-04 ¶¶ 24-32 (2006), petitions for recon. bid for the defaulted permit is established. Pursuant to Section 1.2104(g)(2) of the Rules, you owe an interim default payment totaling $7,254.00, which is three-percent (3%) of your total net winning bid of $241,800.00.¹⁵ Pursuant to Section 1.2106(e) of the Rules, we will apply your payments on deposit to satisfy the interim default payment obligation.¹⁶ Once a subsequent high bid is established for the relevant spectrum, we will determine your final default payment obligation.¹⁷ If an additional payment is required, a further order will assess such payment.¹⁸
