MM Docket No. 99-325

COMMENT SOUGHT ON SPECIFIC ISSUES REGARDING JOINT PARTIES' REQUEST FOR FM DIGITAL POWER INCREASE AND ASSOCIATED TECHNICAL STUDIES

Comment Date: [21 days after date of publication in the Federal Register]
Reply Comment Date: [35 days after date of publication in the Federal Register]

By this Public Notice, the Media Bureau solicits public comment on four issues relevant to recent filings in the pending digital audio broadcasting proceeding, MM Docket No. 99-325,<sup>1</sup> and establishes deadlines for filing these comments.

On October 23, 2008, the Media Bureau released a public notice (the "October 23, 2008, Public Notice")<sup>2</sup> soliciting comment on a request filed June 10, 2008, asking the Commission to modify the technical specifications for FM digital audio broadcasting ("DAB"), as well as on two related technical studies. The request was filed by a group consisting of 18 broadcasters that operate over 1200 commercial and noncommercial educational ("NCE") FM radio stations throughout the United States and the 4 largest manufacturers of broadcast transmission equipment, collectively identifying themselves as the "Joint Parties." The Joint Parties requested that the Commission increase the maximum permissible digital operating power of FM stations from the current level of 1 percent of a station's authorized analog power (-20 dB) to a maximum of 10 percent of a station's authorized analog power (-10 dB) (the "Joint Parties' Request"). Filed concurrently with and in support of the Joint Parties' Request was a technical report prepared by iBiquity Digital Corporation ("iBiquity"). In addition, National Public Radio ("NPR") submitted on July 18, 2008, its Corporation for Public Broadcasting ("CPB")-supported research on digital radio coverage and interference. The October 23, 2008, Public Notice sought comment on the Joint Parties' Request and these related technical studies.

Developments since the release of the October 23, 2008, Public Notice prompt today's solicitation of public comment on four issues. Specifically, in response to the October 23, 2008, Public Notice, the Media Bureau has received comments and reply comments both supporting and opposing the Joint Parties' Request. The Joint Parties have urged the Commission to move expeditiously on its request to ameliorate the coverage shortfalls and reception difficulties that result from digital transmissions at currently authorized power levels. NPR has announced the commencement of additional CPB-supported testing of FM DAB.<sup>3</sup> NPR states that its additional testing will result in a recommendation of the amount of power increase needed to improve digital radio coverage while also protecting analog FM signals, including subcarrier transmissions, from interference. The study also proposes to consider the minimum spacing distances needed to protect analog signals from higher powered digital operations. NPR states that the findings of its study will be presented in September 2009.<sup>4</sup> In light of the record before the Commission, as well as NPR's plans for additional testing of FM DAB, the Media Bureau solicits further comment on the previously submitted iBiquity and NPR technical studies and on the following issues:

1. Whether the Bureau should defer consideration of the Joint Parties' requested power increase until the completion of and comment on the further NPR studies?
2. Whether the record in this proceeding, the real-world experience gained from over 1,400 FM stations operating for several years in the hybrid mode and the record of experimental authorizations at higher digital power levels warrant an increase in maximum digital operating power as proposed by the Joint Parties or support a provisional power increase of some lesser extent than that requested by the Joint Parties?
3. If the Commission does adopt a power increase, whether it should also establish standards to ensure the lack of interference to the analog signals of stations operating on first adjacent channels? Should such standards apply to, i.e., require the protection of, LPFM stations operating on first adjacent channels?
4. Finally, if the Commission does adopt a power increase, whether it should also establish more explicit procedures to resolve digital-into-analog interference complaints?

The Joint Parties request and the iBiquity and NPR technical studies are available electronically at http://fjallfoss.fcc.gov/prod/ecfs/comsrch\_v2.cgi under MM Docket No. 99-325, or from the Commission's duplicating contractor, Best Copy and Printing, Inc.
