Adopted: July 21, 2009

Released: July 21, 2009

By the Acting Chief, Telecommunications Access Policy Division, Wireline Competition Bureau:

1. On March 27, 2009, Advantage Cellular Systems, Inc. (Advantage) filed a request to receive cost-based universal service support.¹ Advantage also requested, pursuant to section 0.459 of the Commission's rules, that the Commission treat as confidential and withhold from public inspection certain commercial data submitted with its request.²

2. We hereby grant Advantage's Request for Confidential Treatment and adopt this protective order to ensure that the confidential and/or competitively sensitive information submitted is afforded adequate protection, but is available to other parties to the proceeding, subject to this protective order. Because of the nature of this proceeding, we find it appropriate to grant access to the Advantage Request in its entirety, subject to the terms of this protective order. To fully develop the record in this proceeding, we find it necessary to provide parties with the ability to comment on the request in its entirety. By restricting access pursuant to this protective order, we provide sufficient safeguards to protect the confidential information contained in the Advantage Request.

3. Under this protective order, we will grant limited access to the unredacted version of the Advantage Request to outside counsel, certain of their employees, and outside consultants and experts whom they retain to assist them in this proceeding.³ We are mindful of the sensitive nature of the information at issue, but we must also protect the rights of the public to participate in this proceeding in a meaningful way. We conclude that the protections adopted in this protective order will give appropriate access to the public while protecting the sensitive information and will thereby serve the public interest. The confidential treatment granted in this order is limited to the confidential information in the Advantage Request and any comments or responses that contain this confidential information that are filed in response to the Advantage Request. No confidential treatment as a result of this protective order is granted to comments or information filed in the broader dockets, i.e., WC Docket No. 05-337 and CC Docket No. 95-45, and information contained in the Advantage Request may not be used in those broader proceedings.

4. Any party seeking access to confidential documents subject to this protective order shall request access pursuant to its terms and each person that accesses these confidential documents must sign the Acknowledgement of Confidentiality, attached as Appendix A , and follow the procedures set forth herein.

5. Definitions. As used herein, capitalized terms, not otherwise defined herein, shall have the following meanings:

“Submitting Party” means Advantage and any person who files documents covered by this protective order in this proceeding.

“Stamped Highly Confidential Document” means the unredacted version of the Advantage Request and any document or any part thereof, filed with the Commission in WC Docket No. 05-337 and CC Docket No. 96-45 in the Advantage Request proceeding only, that bears the legend (or which otherwise shall have had the legend recorded upon it in a way that brings its attention to a reasonable examiner) “CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER REQUESTED ON BEHALF OF ADVANTAGE CELLULAR SYSTEMS, INC.” unless the Commission determines, sua sponte or by request pursuant to sections 0.459 or 0.461 of its rules, that any such document is not entitled to such confidential treatment. The term “document” means any written, recorded, electronically stored, or graphic material, whether produced or created by the Submitting Party or another person. By designating a document a “Stamped Highly Confidential Document,” a Submitting Party signifies that it contains information that the Submitting Party believes should be subject to protection under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), the Commission’s implementing rules and this protective order.

“Highly Confidential Information” means information contained in Stamped Highly Confidential Documents or derived therefrom that is not otherwise available from publicly available sources. Specifically, Highly Confidential Information covered by this protective order refers to information contained in the unredacted version of the Advantage Request. To the extent that a Submitting Party believes that future submissions are entitled to be covered by this protective order, the Submitting Party must file a letter explaining such claim, and the Submitting Party may file under this protective order only those documents specifically authorized by the Wireline Competition Bureau (Bureau).

“Outside Counsel of Record” or “Outside Counsel” means the firm(s) of attorneys, or sole practitioner(s), as the case may be, representing a party in these proceedings, provided that such persons are not involved in competitive decision-making, i.e., Outside Counsel’s activities, association, and relationship with a client do not involve advice about or participation in the business decisions of the client or of any competitor of a Submitting Party nor the analysis underlying the business decisions. Outside Counsel of Record includes any attorney representing a non-commercial party in these proceedings, provided that such a person is not involved in the competitive decision-making activities of any competitor of a Submitting Party.

“Outside Consultants” means consultants or experts retained for the purpose of assisting Counsel or a party in this proceeding, provided that the Outside Consultants are not involved in competitive decision-making, i.e., Outside Consultants’ activities, association, and relationship with a client do not involve advice about or participation in the business decisions of the client or any competitor of a Submitting Party nor the analysis underlying the business decisions. Outside Consultants include any expert employed by a non-commercial party in these proceedings, provided that such a person is not involved in the competitive decision-making activities of any competitor of a Submitting Party.

“Reviewing Party” means a person who has obtained access to Highly Confidential Information (including Stamped Highly Confidential Documents) pursuant to paragraphs 8 and 11 of this protective order.

6. Use of Highly Confidential Information. Persons obtaining access to Highly Confidential Information (including Stamped Highly Confidential Documents) under this protective order shall use the information solely for the preparation and conduct of this proceeding before the Commission as delimited in this and subsequent paragraphs, and any judicial proceeding arising directly from this proceeding and, except as provided herein, shall not use such documents or information for any other purpose, including, without limitation, business, governmental, or commercial purposes, or in other administrative, regulatory or judicial proceedings. Should the Commission rely upon or otherwise make reference to the contents of any of the Stamped Highly Confidential Documents or Highly Confidential Information in its decision in this proceeding, it will do so by redacting any Highly Confidential Information from the public version of the decision and by making the unredacted version of the decision available only to a court and to those persons entitled to access to Highly Confidential Information under this protective order.

7. Non-Disclosure of Stamped Highly Confidential Information. Except with the prior written consent of the Submitting Party, or as hereinafter provided under this protective order, neither a Stamped Highly Confidential Document nor any Highly Confidential Information may be disclosed by a Reviewing Party to any person other than the Commission and its staff.

8. Permissible Disclosure. Subject to the requirements of paragraph 11, Stamped Highly Confidential Documents may be reviewed by Outside Counsel and Outside Consultants. Outside Counsel and Outside Consultants may disclose Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and other Highly Confidential Information to: (1) paralegals or other employees of such Outside Counsel or Outside Consultants not described in clause 2 of this paragraph assisting Outside Counsel or Outside Consultants in this proceeding; (2) employees of such Outside Counsel or Outside Consultants involved solely in one or more aspects of organizing, filing, coding, converting, storing, or retrieving documents or data or designing programs for handling data connected with this proceeding, or performing other clerical or ministerial functions with regard to documents connected with this proceeding; and (3) employees of third-party contractors performing one or more of the functions set forth in clause 2 of this paragraph. Reviewing Parties may discuss and share the contents of the Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and Highly Confidential Information with any other Reviewing Party and with the Commission and its staff. A Submitting Party’s Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and Highly Confidential Information may also be disclosed to employees and Counsel of the Submitting Party, as otherwise permitted.

9. Protection of Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and Highly Confidential Information. Persons described in paragraph 8 shall have the obligation to ensure that access to Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and Highly Confidential Information is strictly limited as prescribed in this protective order. Such persons shall further have the obligation to ensure that: (1) Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and Highly Confidential Information are used only as provided in this protective order; and (2) Stamped Highly Confidential Documents are not duplicated except as necessary for filing at the Commission under seal as provided in paragraph 14 below.

10. Prohibited Copying. If, in the judgment of the Submitting Party, a document contains information so sensitive (even given its Highly Confidential designation) that it should not be copied by anyone, it shall bear the additional legend “Copying Prohibited” and no copies of such document, in any form, shall be made. Application for relief from this restriction against copying may be made to the Commission, with notice to Outside Counsel for the Submitting Party.

11. Procedures for Obtaining Access to Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and Highly Confidential Information. In all cases where access to Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and Highly Confidential Information is permitted pursuant to paragraph 8, before reviewing or having access to any Stamped Highly Confidential Documents or Highly Confidential Information, each person seeking such access shall execute the attached Acknowledgment and file it with the Bureau via the Commission’s Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS) for this docket. All such persons (except as described below) shall serve the Acknowledgment upon each Submitting Party through its Outside Counsel of Record so that the Acknowledgment is received by each Submitting Party at least five business days prior to such person’s reviewing or having access to such Submitting Party’s Stamped Highly Confidential Documents or Highly Confidential Information, except that, where the person seeking access is one described in either clause 2 or 3 of paragraph 8, the Acknowledgment shall be delivered promptly prior to the person obtaining access. Each Submitting Party shall have an opportunity to object to the disclosure of Stamped Highly Confidential Documents to any persons seeking access. Any objection must be filed at the Commission and served on Counsel representing, retaining or employing such person within three business days after receiving a copy of that person’s Acknowledgment (or where the person seeking access is one described in either clause 2 or 3 of paragraph 8, such objection shall be filed and served as promptly as practicable after receipt of the relevant Acknowledgment). Until any such objection is resolved by the Commission and, if appropriate, any court of competent jurisdiction prior to any disclosure, and unless such objection is resolved in favor of the person seeking access, persons subject to an objection from a Submitting Party shall not have access to Stamped Highly Confidential Documents or Highly Confidential Information. The Submitting Party shall make available for review the Stamped Highly Confidential Documents of such party at the offices of such party’s Outside Counsel of Record or, if the Submitting Party does not have Outside Counsel of Record, at the offices of such party’s in-house counsel; provided, however, that multiple Submitting Parties filing together shall make available for review all of their Stamped Highly Confidential Documents at the offices of one of the Submitting Parties’ Outside Counsel of Record.

12. Information in Electronic Format. Any person entitled to access Highly Confidential Information pursuant to this order, upon request, is entitled to one searchable electronic copy of information contained, recorded, or electronically stored on a CD-ROM, DVD, flash drive, portable hard drive or other electronic storage device. The disk or other medium containing Highly Confidential Information in electronic format shall be physically sent to the person requesting access; it shall not be transmitted electronically.

a. A person in receipt of Highly Confidential Information in electronic format shall load the information onto a computer solely for the purpose of analysis in connection with this proceeding and for no other purpose. The original disk or other storage medium shall be stored in a secure location and a record kept of any persons who access it. Only persons who have signed the Acknowledgment to this protective order may be given access to the disk or other medium.

b. Once loaded onto a computer, the files containing Highly Confidential Information shall be password protected immediately. The password shall be given only to persons who have signed the Acknowledgement. The Highly Confidential Information may not be stored on a computer after being analyzed. Consequently, Highly Confidential Information should not be stored in computer memory that is copied, such as to a network's back-up or archival storage. After the analysis is complete, the results of such analysis may be stored by saving the results (but not the underlying Highly Confidential Information) to a mobile data storage medium. All files containing Highly Confidential Information shall be deleted from the computer as soon as practicable.

13. Requests for Additional Disclosure. If any person requests disclosure of Highly Confidential Information outside the terms of this protective order, such a request will be treated in accordance with sections 0.442 and 0.461 of the Commission's rules.⁴

14. Filings with the Commission. Persons described in paragraph 8 may, in any documents that they file in this proceeding, reference Highly Confidential Information, but only if they comply with the following procedure: Two copies of each filing that contains or references Highly Confidential Information pursuant to this protective order (the Confidential Filing) must be delivered in person to Gary Seigel, Wireline Competition Bureau, Federal Communications Commission, 445 12th Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20554. The filing should be accompanied by a cover letter prominently stating "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER IN WC DOCKET NO. 05-337 AND CC DOCKET NO. 96-45, BEFORE THE FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION." Each page of the confidential or proprietary document should be stamped "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER IN WC DOCKET NO. 05-337 AND CC DOCKET NO. 96-45, BEFORE THE FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION." In addition, the Submitting Party must file with the Secretary's Office one copy of the Confidential Filing and two copies of the Confidential Filing in redacted form (the Redacted Confidential Filing). The two copies of the Redacted Confidential Filing and their accompanying cover letters should be stamped "REDACTED – FOR PUBLIC INSPECTION." The cover letter accompanying the Redacted Confidential Filing should state that the Submitting Party is filing a redacted version of the particular Confidential Filing. Parties should not provide courtesy paper copies of filings containing Highly Confidential Information to Commission Staff unless the Bureau so requests, in which case the Submitting Party may print as many copies as the Bureau requests. Any such courtesy copies shall be submitted under seal. All parties should submit an electronic copy of filings containing Highly Confidential Information to Gary Seigel (Gary.Seigel@fcc.gov).

15. Client Consultation. Nothing in this protective order shall prevent or otherwise restrict Outside Counsel from rendering advice to their clients relating to the conduct of this proceeding and any subsequent judicial proceeding arising therefrom and, in the course thereof, relying generally on examination of Stamped Highly Confidential Documents or Highly Confidential Information; provided, however, that in rendering such advice and otherwise communicating with such client, Outside Counsel shall not disclose Stamped Highly Confidential Documents or Highly Confidential Information.

16. No Waiver of Confidentiality. Disclosure of Highly Confidential Information as provided herein by any person shall not be deemed a waiver by any Submitting Party of any privilege or entitlement to confidential treatment of such Highly Confidential Information. Reviewing parties, by viewing this material agree: (1) not to assert any such waiver; (2) not to use Highly Confidential

Information to seek disclosure in any other proceeding; and (3) that accidental disclosure of Highly Confidential Information by a Submitting Party shall not be deemed a waiver of any privilege or entitlement as long as the Submitting Party takes prompt remedial action.

17. Subpoena by Courts, Departments or Agencies. If a court, or a federal or state department or agency issues a subpoena or orders production of Stamped Highly Confidential Documents or Highly Confidential Information that a party has obtained under terms of this protective order, such party shall promptly notify each Submitting Party of the pendency of such subpoena or order. Consistent with the independent authority of any court, department or agency, such notification must be accomplished such that the Submitting Party has a full opportunity to oppose such production prior to the production or disclosure of any Stamped Highly Confidential Document or Highly Confidential Information.

18. Violations of Protective Order. Should a person that has properly obtained access to Highly Confidential Information under this protective order violate any of its terms, that person shall immediately convey that fact to the Commission and to the Submitting Party. Further, should such violation consist of improper disclosure of Highly Confidential Information, the violating person shall take all necessary steps to remedy the improper disclosure. The Commission retains its full authority to fashion appropriate sanctions for violations of this protective order, including but not limited to suspension or disbarment of Outside Counsel from practice before the Commission, forfeitures, cease and desist orders, and denial of further access to Highly Confidential Information in this or any other Commission proceeding. Nothing in this protective order shall limit any other rights and remedies available to the Submitting Party at law or in equity against any person using Highly Confidential Information in a manner not authorized by this protective order.

19. Termination of Proceeding. The provisions of this protective order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this proceeding. Within two weeks after conclusion of this proceeding and any administrative or judicial review, persons described by paragraph 8 shall destroy or return to the Submitting Party Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and all copies of the same. No material whatsoever derived from Stamped Highly Confidential Documents may be retained by any person having access thereto, except Outside Counsel (as described in paragraph 8) may retain, under the continuing strictures of this protective order, two copies of pleadings (one of which may be in electronic format) containing Confidential Information prepared (in whole or in part) by that party and one copy of orders issued by the Commission or Bureau containing Highly Confidential Information. All Outside Counsel shall make certification of compliance herewith and shall deliver the same to Outside Counsel for the Submitting Party not more than three weeks after conclusion of this proceeding and any administrative or judicial review. The provisions of this paragraph 19 regarding retention of Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and copies of same shall not be construed to apply to the Commission or its staff.

20. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that pursuant to sections 4(i), 4(j), and 10 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. §§ 154(i), 154(j), 160, and pursuant to authority delegated under sections 0.91 and 0.291 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.91, 0.291,⁵ that this protective order IS ADOPTED, effective upon its release.
