AM Auction No. 84, MX Group 84-39 Reconfigured Due to Settlements and Technical Resolutions; Subgroups Listed

On November 6, 2003, the Media Bureau and the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau (collectively the “Bureaus”) announced a five-day period, from January 26, 2004, to January 30, 2004, for the filing of applications for new AM stations and major modifications to authorized AM stations.¹ By Public Notice dated June 15, 2005,² the Bureaus provided a list of all applications received during the filing window that were mutually exclusive (“MX”) with other applications submitted in the filing window.³ In the MX Public Notice, applicants in several of the listed MX groups were given the opportunity to eliminate their mutual exclusivity with other applicants by means of settlement or technical modification to their proposals.

As listed in the MX Public Notice, AM Auction 84 MX Group 84-39 consisted of 116 applications. Following the settlement and technical resolution filing opportunity, the staff evaluated and processed those submissions, then reconfigured into subgroups the pending tech box applications in MX Group 84-39 that remained mutually exclusive.

By this Public Notice, the Media Bureau provides, as Attachment A, a list of all pending applications from MX Group 84-39 that are currently mutually exclusive with at least one other

⁴ 47 C.F.R. §§ 1.1200 et seq. We note that, under our ex parte rules, auction filing window applicants are not deemed to be parties with respect to each other's applications merely because their applications are mutually exclusive. Accordingly, absent other factors, e.g., the filing of an opposition or objection to another applicant's tech box showing or waiver request, an applicant in an MX group or subgroup may make ex parte presentations about its own application. See 47 C.F.R. § 1.1202(d)(1) and Note 1.
