II. BACKGROUND

3. The Commission received a complaint, dated November 26, 2007 (the "Complaint"),² alleging that Station KDKA(AM)'s on-air host conducted a contest on November 22, 2007 that allegedly violated Section 73.1216 of the Commission's rules. Specifically, the Complaint alleged that, beginning approximately at 9:10 a.m. on November 27, 2007, the host announced that he would give away one million dollars ($1,000,000) to the thirteenth caller, and that he would give away "a million an hour thereafter." The Complainant alleged that he called the Station and was informed that he was the thirteenth caller, but later was told that there was no million dollar prize being awarded and that the host's comments otherwise were a joke.

4. In response to the Complaint, the Bureau's Investigations and Hearings Division sent a Letter of Inquiry to CBS, dated December 10, 2007.³ In its Response to the Letter of Inquiry, CBS did not dispute that it aired the complained-of material but argued that the Broadcast was a joke or prank originated by the on-air host, and not a Licensee-Conducted Contest subject to Section 73.1216 of the Commission's Rules.⁴

5. On February 5, 2009, the Bureau's Investigations and Hearings Division (the "Division") released a Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture.⁵ The Division ruled that CBS apparently violated the Licensee-Conducted Contest Rule by airing the Broadcast and proposed a forfeiture in the amount of

$6,000. On March 9, 2009, CBS filed a response to the NAL, reasserting its argument that Section 73.1216 is inapplicable to the Broadcast.⁶

III. TERMS OF AGREEMENT

6. Adopting Order. The Parties agree that the provisions of this Consent Decree shall be subject to final approval by the Bureau by incorporation of such provisions by reference in the Adopting Order without change, addition, modification, or deletion.

Without limitation to the foregoing, the Bureau shall not use the facts of this Consent Decree, the NAL, the Complaint, any other similar complaints alleging violation by the Station of the Contest Rule with respect to the Broadcast at issue in the Complaint prior to the Effective Date, or the underlying facts, behavior, or broadcasts that relate to any of the foregoing, for any purpose relating to CBS or the Station, and shall treat all such matters as resolved for all purposes. In consideration for the termination of the above-captioned Investigation and in express reliance on the provisions of paragraph 9 hereof, CBS agrees to the terms, conditions and procedures contained herein and agrees not to pursue any further challenges to the Bureau's findings, as outlined in the NAL.

CBS shall retain the right to challenge Commission interpretation of the Consent Decree or any terms contained herein. If either Party (or the United States on behalf of the Commission or Bureau) brings a judicial action to enforce the terms of the Adopting Order, neither CBS nor the Commission or Bureau shall contest the validity of the Consent Decree or the Adopting Order, and CBS shall waive any statutory right to a trial de novo. CBS hereby agrees to waive any claims it may otherwise have under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 5 U.S.C. § 504 and 47 C.F.R. § 1.1501 et seq., relating to the matters addressed in this Consent Decree.
