Reply Comments Due: December 21, 2010

On November 15, 2010, DISH Media Holdings Corporation (DISH Media), Liberty-Bell, LLC, and Liberty-Bell Telecom, LLC (Liberty-Bell Telecom) (together, Applicants) filed an application pursuant to section 63.03 of the Commission's rules¹ to transfer control of Liberty-Bell Telecom to DISH Media.

Liberty-Bell Telecom, a Colorado limited liability company, provides competitive local exchange carrier (LEC) and long distance services in Colorado and has limited operations in New Mexico and Utah.² It is wholly owned by Liberty-Bell, LLC, a Colorado limited liability company that operates as a holding company and does not itself provide telecommunications services. DISH Media, a Colorado corporation, is a wholly owned subsidiary of DISH Network Corporation (DISH Network), a U.S.-based publicly traded holding company that provides pay-TV services nationwide. Applicants state that DISH Media does not provide telecommunications services. Charles W. Ergen, a U.S. citizen, owns 53.6 percent, and Goldman Sachs Asset Management, L.P. and GS Investment Strategies, LLC (together, Goldman Sachs Asset Management), Delaware-based investment entities, own 13.4 percent of DISH Network. Goldman Sachs Asset Management is wholly owned by The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc., a publicly traded Delaware corporation with no 10 percent or greater interest holders.³ Applicants state that, following the transaction, no other entity will directly or indirectly own or control 10 percent or more of Liberty-Bell Telecom, LLC.

¹ 47 C.F.R. § 63.03; see 47 U.S.C. § 214. Applicants are also filing an application for a transfer of control associated with authorization for international services. Any action on this domestic section 214 application is without prejudice to Commission action on other related, pending applications. Applicants filed supplements to their domestic section 214 application on November 22 and 24, 2010.

² Applicants state that Liberty-Bell Telecom provides resold services solely in territory served by the incumbent LEC, Qwest Communications International, Inc. They state that Liberty-Bell Telecom is authorized to provide intrastate services in Iowa, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, and Washington and has also sought certification in Arizona, Idaho, Minnesota, and Wyoming. They further state that Liberty-Bell Telecom does not currently provide service in any of these states.

Pursuant to the terms of the proposed transaction, DISH Media will purchase shares and acquire majority ownership and control of Liberty-Bell, LLC, including the right to appoint a majority of the board of managers, 90 percent of the equity interests, and 93.1 percent of the voting interests of Liberty-Bell, LLC. Applicants assert that the proposed transaction is entitled to presumptive streamlined treatment under section 63.03(b)(2)(i) of the Commission's rules and that a grant of the application will serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity.⁴
