RE: EB-11-TC-104

This is an official CITATION issued by the Federal Communications Commission (Commission or FCC) pursuant to section 503(b)(5) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the Communications Act or Act), 47 U.S.C. § 503(b)(5), to Mainstream VRS, LLC (Mainstream VRS or the Company) for violations of section 225 of the Act and section 64.601 et seq. of the Commission's rules.¹ As explained below, any future violations of section 225 of the Act or section 64.601 et seq. of the Commission's rules may subject the Company to further legal action, including monetary fines (forfeitures) and/or other penalties.²

Section 64.601 et seq. of the Commission's rules generally establishes the requirements for entities participating in the Telecommunications Relay Services (TRS) program, including those relating to the eligibility of entities offering and providing TRS, mandatory minimum operating standards, and data submissions.³ Under the Commission's rules, to the extent that a TRS provider chooses to offer Video Relay Service (VRS), an Internet-based form of TRS, the service can only be offered to the public in the name of a provider eligible to receive reimbursements directly from the TRS Fund (Eligible Providers).⁴ Eligible Providers may also

² All references in this citation to Mainstream VRS include all d/b/a entities and any other entity names used by the Company to provide VRS. Further, all references in this citation to the Company also include the owners, principals and officers of this entity, as well as the corporate entity itself.

³ 47 C.F.R. §§ 64.601-613.

⁴ 47 C.F.R. § 64.604(c)(5)(iii)(N)(1)(i). Entities that do not meet the criteria currently in effect under section 64.604(c)(5)(iii)(F) of the Commission's rules are prohibited from holding themselves out to the public as providing VRS.

utilize sub-brand(s) to identify their VRS.⁵ Additionally, Eligible Providers must route all VRS calls through a single URL address used by the Eligible Provider to provide its VRS or a URL address it uses to provide VRS in the name of a sub-brand.⁶

Under section 64.604(c)(5)(iii)(N)(1)(iii) of the Commission's rules, Eligible Providers were prohibited from having contracts authorizing a third party to provide core functions associated with providing VRS.⁷ However, the Commission stayed the effective date of section 64.604(c)(5)(iii)(N)(1)(iii) until November 15, 2011.⁸ This stay allows Eligible Providers to have certain revenue sharing arrangements, including subcontracting with third parties to provide interpretation services and call center functions on the Eligible Provider's behalf.⁹ In such cases, the third-party may not hold itself out as offering or providing the service; the Eligible Provider must always be identified as the entity offering and providing the VRS regardless of whether the service is offered directly by the Eligible Provider or through a contract with a third-party.¹⁰

Again, as discussed above, the stay of section 64.604(c)(5)(iii)(N)(1)(iii) of the Commission's rules is temporary. Effective November 15, 2011, or such other date as the Commission may designate, Eligible Providers will be prohibited from contracting with or otherwise authorizing any third party to act on their behalf to provide interpretation service or call center functions unless the third party has been certified by the Commission as an Eligible Provider (i.e., it will be a violation of section 64.601 et seq. for the Company to offer or provide VRS, or act on behalf of an Eligible Provider by providing interpretation services or call center functions, without having obtained from the Commission a certification authorizing the Company to provide VRS and receive reimbursements directly from the TRS Fund).

Based on the foregoing and the record developed in this case, the Enforcement Bureau (Bureau), acting through its delegated authority, finds that Mainstream VRS, LLC violated section 225 of the Act and section 64.601 et seq. of the Commission's rules governing TRS. Specifically, after June 1, 2011, the Company:

⁹ Call Center functions include call distribution, call routing, call setup, mapping, call features, billing, and registration. 47 C.F.R. § 64.604(c)(5)(iii)(N)(1)(iii).

¹⁰ § 64.604(c)(5)(iii)(N)(1)(ii). Brand names such as XYZ Co. powered by Eligible Provider or XYZ Co., a subcontractor of Eligible Provider, do not comply with the requirement that service be offered in the name of the Eligible Provider. Neither of these brand names clearly identifies the Eligible Provider as the entity actually providing the service. See Structure and Practices of the Video Relay Service Program, CG Docket No. 10-51, Report and Order and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 26 FCC Rcd 6862 (2011).

- Held itself out to the public as offering and providing VRS when the Company is not an Eligible Provider.

Our investigation of the Company's violations is continuing. Recovery of any monies associated with minutes that were processed through the Company's URL and submitted to the TRS Fund administrator for reimbursement will be handled through a separate process. The Commission and/or the TRS Fund administrator will notify the Eligible Provider that submitted such minutes to the TRS Fund administrator of any monies that must be repaid.¹¹

If, after receipt of this citation, the Company again violates section 225 of the Act or section 64.601 et seq. of the Commission's rules, the Commission may impose monetary forfeitures up to $16,000 for each such violation, or up to $16,000 per day of a continuing violation. You are advised that the Company's continued engagement in the activities discussed above or engaging in the provision of VRS without proper certification after issuance of this citation is a violation of section 64.601 et seq. and section 225 and could subject the Company to monetary forfeiture in accordance with section 503 of the Communications Act.
