CITATION

EXCEEDING SIGNAL LEAKAGE LIMITS IN AERONAUTICAL BANDS

Adopted: October 25, 2011

Released: October 27, 2011

By the Resident Agent, Portland Resident Agent Office, Western Region, Enforcement Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is an official CITATION issued pursuant to Section 503(b)(5) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (“Act”),<sup>1</sup> to the Fireside Motel for exceeding signal leakage limits in aeronautical frequency bands in violation of Section 76.605(a)(12) of the Commission’s Rules (“Rules”).<sup>2</sup>

2. Fireside Motel should take immediate steps to come into compliance and to avoid any recurrence of this misconduct. As explained below and as provided in the Communications Act, future violations of the Commission’s Rules in this regard may subject your company to substantial monetary penalties, seizure of equipment, and criminal sanctions.

II. BACKGROUND

3. Investigation by the Enforcement Bureau's Portland Office revealed that on August 19, 2011, Fireside Motel utilized a non-cable, multichannel video programming distributor (“MVPD”) system located at 1881 Hwy 101, Yachats, Oregon, which was emitting radio carrier signals above allowed limits on frequency bands utilized by aeronautical services. At the time of the inspection, the Portland agent conducted field strength measurements on the frequency 121.2625 MHz over three meters near the Fireside Motel’s Village Gift Gallery. The agent measured an emission of 204 microvolts at that location on August 19, 2011.

III. APPLICABLE LAW AND VIOLATIONS

4. The Commission's Rules provide that MVPDs, both cable and non-cable, that transmit carriers with certain characteristics within frequency bands of 108-137 MHz and 225-400 MHz must comply with specific technical requirements delineated in the Rules in order to avoid interference to other licensed operations, including aeronautical systems operating in these frequency ranges. In particular, Section 76.610 of the Rules provides that all MVPDs (cable and non-cable) transmitting carriers or other signal components carried at an average power level equal to or greater than  $10^{-4}$  watts across a 25 kHz bandwidth in any 160 microsecond period, at any point in the cable distribution system in the frequency bands 108-137 and 225-400 MHz for any purpose must comply with, among others, Section 76.605(a)(12) of the Rules.<sup>3</sup> Fireside Motel is required to comply with this Rule because the MVPD system at its property in Yachats, Oregon, transmits carriers at an average power level equal to or greater than  $10^{-4}$  watts across a 25 kHz bandwidth in any 160 microsecond period and carries signals in the 108-137 MHz aeronautical band. Section 76.605(a)(12) of the Rules provides that "[a]s an exception to the general provision requiring measurements to be made at subscriber terminals, and without regard to the type of signals carried by the cable television system, signal leakage from a cable television system shall be measured in accordance with the procedures outlined in § 76.609(h) and shall be limited as follows: Over 54 MHz up to and including 216 MHz – 20 micro-volts per meter, measured at 3 meters."<sup>4</sup>

5. An investigation by the Portland Office revealed that Fireside Motel, in Yachats, Oregon, utilized a non-cable, MVPD system which was emitting radio carrier signals above allowed limits on frequency bands utilized by aeronautical services. Specifically, the Portland agent conducted field strength measurements near the Fireside Motel's Village Gift Gallery, but over three meters from the source, on the frequency 121.2625 MHz and measured an emission of 204 microvolts on August 19, 2011. The signal leakage emitted from the MVPD system utilized by Fireside Motel violated Section 76.605(a)(12) of the Rules.<sup>5</sup>

IV. REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

6. Pursuant to sections 4(i), 4(j), and 403 of the Act,<sup>6</sup> Fireside Motel is directed to provide the information specified herein, within twenty (20) days after the release date of this Citation.

- a. Descriptions of the specific action(s) that have been taken to correct the violation and preclude recurrence. Include a time line for completion of pending corrective action(s).

V. FUTURE COMPLIANCE

7. If, after receipt of this Citation, Fireside Motel violates the Communications Act or the Commission's Rules by engaging in conduct of the type described herein, the Commission may impose monetary forfeitures of up to $16,000 for each such violation or each day of a continuing violation and up to $112,500 for any single act or failure to act.<sup>7</sup> In addition, violations of the Act or the Rules can result in seizure of equipment through in rem forfeiture actions, as well as criminal sanctions, including imprisonment.<sup>8</sup>

8. Fireside Motel may respond to this Citation within twenty (20) days after the release date of this Citation either through (1) a personal interview at the closest FCC office, or (2) a written statement. Any written statements should specify what actions have been taken by Fireside Motel to ensure that it does not violate the Commission's Rules governing signal leakage limits in the future.

9. Under the Privacy Act of 1974, any statement or information provided by you may be used by the Commission to determine if further enforcement action is required.<sup>9</sup> Any knowingly or willfully false statement, or concealment of any material fact, made in reply to this Citation is punishable by fine or imprisonment.<sup>10</sup> Please also note that Section 1.17 of the Rules requires that you provide truthful and accurate statements to the Commission.<sup>11</sup>
