COMMENTS INVITED ON APPLICATION OF CENTURYLINK TO DISCONTINUE DOMESTIC TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES

WC Docket No. 11-191
Comp. Pol. File No. 1021

Comments Due: December 16, 2011

Section 214 Application Applicant: CenturyLink

On October 28, 2011, CenturyLink (CenturyLink or Applicant), located at 100 CenturyLink Drive, Monroe, Louisiana 71203, filed an application with the Federal Communications Commission (FCC or Commission) requesting authority, under section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 214, and section 63.71 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 63.71, to discontinue certain domestic telecommunications services in Alabama and Missouri (collectively Service Areas).

CenturyLink indicates that it currently offers Express Connect and Flex Express Connect service in the Service Areas.<sup>1</sup> CenturyLink explains that these services are interstate services that provide a connection to CenturyLink's optical network via ring technology, and that they are offered at capacities ranging from OC3 to OC192. CenturyLink states, however, that there is no demand for the services and that it currently does not have any customers for either service. CenturyLink indicates that it plans to discontinue these services in the Service Areas on January 15, 2012 or as soon thereafter as the necessary regulatory approvals can be obtained. CenturyLink maintains that it will continue to offer Custom Connect service and that this service is functionally equivalent to the services it plans to discontinue.<sup>2</sup> CenturyLink asserts that it is a dominant carrier with regard to the services to be discontinued.

In accordance with section 63.71(c) of the Commission's rules, CenturyLink's application will be deemed to be granted automatically on the 60th day after the release date of this public notice, unless the Commission notifies CenturyLink that the grant will not be automatically effective. In the application,

CenturyLink indicates that it plans to discontinue Express Connect and Flex Express Connect services in the Service Areas on January 15, 2012 or as soon thereafter as the necessary regulatory approvals can be obtained. Accordingly, pursuant to section 63.71(c) and the terms of CenturyLink's application, absent further Commission action, CenturyLink may terminate its Express Connect and Flex Express Connect services in the Service Areas on or after January 15, 2012. The Commission normally will authorize proposed discontinuances of service unless it is shown that customers or other end users would be unable to receive service or a reasonable substitute from another carrier, or that the public convenience and necessity would be otherwise adversely affected.

This proceeding is considered a "permit but disclose" proceeding for purposes of the Commission's ex parte rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 1.1200-1.1216. Comments objecting to this application must be filed with the Commission on or before December 16, 2011. Such comments should refer to WC Docket No. 11-191 and Comp. Pol. File No. 1021.
