NOTICE OF REQUEST FOR ACCESS TO FORM 477 BROADBAND DATA PLEADING CYCLE ESTABLISHED

WC Docket No. 11-3

Comment Date: January 18, 2011

Pursuant to its administration of the State Broadband Data and Development (SBDD) Program, the National Telecommunications and Information Administration (NTIA) has requested access to data collected on the Commission's Form 477.<sup>1</sup> Specifically, NTIA is seeking access to data on Internet access connections as of June 30, 2010, with a reporting deadline of September 1, 2010. This Notice initiates a pleading cycle that would allow any affected provider to oppose such disclosure of Form 477 data.

Among the purposes of the SBDD Program is to assist state-designated eligible entities in gathering data twice a year on the availability, speed, and location of broadband services, as well as on the use of broadband services by community institutions, such as schools, libraries and hospitals.<sup>2</sup> The FCC and NTIA will use data collected from state eligible entities in the SBDD Program to develop a comprehensive national inventory map of broadband service capability and availability, in fulfillment of NTIA's obligation under the ARRA.<sup>3</sup> NTIA intends to use Form 477 broadband data as a baseline for comparison with the data collected by the eligible entity in each State pursuant to the SBDD Program and may include non-confidential Form 477 data in the National Broadband Map website.

The Commission collects information about Internet access connections to end user locations, wired and wireless local telephone services, and interconnected Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) services in individual states on FCC Form 477.<sup>4</sup> The Commission allows filers to request confidential treatment for competitively sensitive information in a particular Form 477 submission by making the appropriate selection on the cover page of Form 477.<sup>5</sup>

While the Commission's regulations provide that proprietary and commercially sensitive information will be withheld from public disclosure, subject to the public's right to seek disclosure under the FOIA and implementing regulations,<sup>6</sup> the Commission is authorized to share information it has collected with another federal agency if such disclosure is not inconsistent with applicable law.<sup>7</sup> The Commission's rules provide for interagency disclosure of information that has been submitted to the Commission in confidence if certain conditions are met.<sup>8</sup> Specifically, the Commission may engage in sharing with other agencies, subject to notice and an opportunity for submitting parties to object, and provided that: (1) specific assurances against such disclosure have not been given; (2) the receiving agency has established a legitimate need for the information; (3) disclosure is made subject to 44 U.S.C. 3510(b); and (4) disclosure is not prohibited by the Privacy Act or other provisions of law.<sup>9</sup> Under 44 U.S.C. § 3510(b), the officers and employees of an agency receiving information from another agency are subject to the same provisions of law, including penalties, relating to unlawful disclosure of the information as the officers and employees of the agency originally collecting it.<sup>10</sup> The Commission has previously provided NTIA with access to Form 477 data for use in connection with NTIA's Broadband Technology Opportunities Program.<sup>11</sup>

Pursuant to the Commission's regulations, affected parties have until January 18, 2011 to oppose disclosure to NTIA of the Form 477 data that the Commission collects from broadband service providers.<sup>12</sup> If the Commission receives no opposition from affected parties by that date, the Commission will disclose the information requested above to NTIA. If disclosure is opposed, the procedures set forth in 47 C.F.R. § 0.442 shall apply. All pleadings should refer to WC Docket No. 11-3. Comments may be
