ORDER

Adopted: April 26, 2011

Released: April 29, 2011

By the Deputy Chief, Consumer Policy Division, Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau:

1. In this Order, we consider the complaint filed by Complainant¹ alleging that Legent Communications Corporation d/b/a Long Distance Services (Long Distance Services) changed Complainant's telecommunications service provider without obtaining authorization and verification from Complainant in violation of the Commission's rules.² We conclude that Long Distance Services's actions did result in an unauthorized change in Complainant's telecommunications service provider and we grant Complainant's complaint.

2. In December 1998, the Commission released the Section 258 Order in which it adopted rules to implement Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934 (Act), as amended by the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (1996 Act).³ Section 258 prohibits the practice of

Prior to the adoption of Section 258, the Commission had taken various steps to address the slamming problem. “slamming,” the submission or execution of an unauthorized change in a subscriber’s selection of a provider of telephone exchange service or telephone toll service.⁴ In the Section 258 Order, the Commission adopted aggressive new rules designed to take the profit out of slamming, broadened the scope of the slamming rules to encompass all carriers, and modified its existing requirements for the authorization and verification of preferred carrier changes. The rules require, among other things, that a carrier receive individual subscriber consent before a carrier change may occur.⁵ Pursuant to Section 258, carriers are absolutely barred from changing a customer's preferred local or long distance carrier without first complying with one of the Commission's verification procedures.⁶ Specifically, a carrier must: (1) obtain the subscriber's written or electronically signed authorization in a format that meets the requirements of Section 64.1130 ; (2) obtain confirmation from the subscriber via a toll-free number provided exclusively for the purpose of confirming orders electronically; or (3) utilize an independent third party to verify the subscriber's order.⁷

3. The Commission also has adopted liability rules. These rules require the carrier to absolve the subscriber where the subscriber has not paid his or her bill. In that context, if the subscriber has not already paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the subscriber is absolved of liability for charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier for service provided during the first 30 days after the unauthorized change.⁸ Where the subscriber has paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the Commission’s rules require that the unauthorized carrier pay 150% of those charges to the authorized carrier, and the authorized carrier shall refund or credit to the subscriber 50% of all charges paid by the subscriber to the unauthorized carrier.⁹ Carriers should note that our actions in this order do not preclude the Commission from taking additional action, if warranted, pursuant to Section 503 of the Act.¹⁰

4. We received Complainant’s complaint on July 6, 2010, alleging that Complainant’s telecommunications service provider had been changed to Long Distance Services without Complainant’s authorization. Pursuant to Sections 1.719 and 64.1150 of our rules,¹¹ we notified Long Distance Services of the complaint and Long Distance Services responded on August 6, 2010.¹² Long Distance Services states that Complainant's telephone number was inadvertently switched. Therefore, we find that Long Distance Services's actions resulted in an unauthorized change in Complainant's telecommunications service provider and we discuss Long Distance Services's liability below.¹³

5. Pursuant to Section 64.1170(b) our rules, Long Distance Services must forward to Qwest an amount equal to 150% of all charges paid by the subscriber to Long Distance Services along with copies of any telephone bills issued from Long Distance Services to the Complainant.¹⁴ Within ten days of receipt of this amount, Qwest shall provide a refund or credit to Complainant in the amount of 50% of all charges paid by Complainant to Long Distance Services. Complainant has the option of asking Qwest to re-rate Long Distance Services charges based on Qwest rates and, on behalf of Complainant, seek from Long Distance Services, any re-rated amount exceeding 50% of all charges paid by Complainant to Long Distance Services. Qwest must also send a notice to the Commission, referencing this Order, stating that it has given a refund or credit to Complainant.¹⁵ If Qwest has not received the reimbursement required from Long Distance Services within 45 days of the release of this Order, Qwest must notify the Commission and Complainant accordingly. Qwest also must notify the Complainant of his or her right to pursue a claim against Long Distance Services for a refund of all charges paid to Long Distance Services.¹⁶

6. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 258, and Sections 0.141, 0.361 and 1.719 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.141, 0.361, 1.719, the complaint filed by Complainant against Long Distance Services IS GRANTED.

7. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 64.1170(b) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 64.1170(b), that Long Distance Services must forward to Qwest an amount equal to 150% of all charges paid by the subscriber along with copies of any telephone bills issued from the company to the Complainant within ten (10) days of the release of this order.

¹² Long Distance Services's Response to Informal Complaint No. IC 10-S2693880, received August 6, 2010.

¹³ If Complainant is unsatisfied with the resolution of this complaint, Complainant may file a formal complaint with the Commission pursuant to Section 1.721 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.721. Such filing will be deemed to relate back to the filing date of Complainant's informal complaint so long as the formal complaint is filed within 45 days from the date this order is mailed or delivered electronically to Complainant. See 47 C.F.R. § 1.719.
