Section 214 Application

Applicant: AT&T Inc. on behalf of Illinois Bell Telephone Company d/b/a AT&T Illinois, Indiana Bell Telephone Company, Inc. d/b/a AT&T Indiana, Michigan Bell Telephone Company d/b/a AT&T Michigan, The Ohio Bell Telephone Company d/b/a AT&T Ohio, The Southern New England Telephone Company d/b/a AT&T Connecticut and Wisconsin Bell, Inc. d/b/a AT&T Wisconsin

On May 17, 2011, AT&T Inc. (AT&T or Applicant) filed an application with the Federal Communications Commission (FCC or Commission) on behalf of its affiliates, Illinois Bell Telephone Company d/b/a AT&T Illinois, Indiana Bell Telephone Company, Inc. d/b/a AT&T Indiana, Michigan Bell Telephone Company d/b/a AT&T Michigan, The Ohio Bell Telephone Company d/b/a AT&T Ohio, The Southern New England Telephone Company d/b/a AT&T Connecticut and Wisconsin Bell, Inc. d/b/a AT&T Wisconsin (AT&T Affiliates), located at 2600 Camino Ramon, San Ramon, CA 94583, requesting authority, under section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 214, and section 63.71 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 63.71, to discontinue certain domestic telecommunications services throughout the AT&T service territories in Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio and Wisconsin (collectively Service Areas).

AT&T indicates that the AT&T Affiliates currently offer Multichannel Video Service (MVS) in the Service Areas. AT&T explains that MVS is a point to point video hub service which provides transmission of up to sixteen video signals and up to four associated audio channels per video signal. AT&T states, however, that the AT&T Affiliates plan to discontinue MVS due to a lack of demand. AT&T indicates that the AT&T Affiliates plan to discontinue offering new arrangements for MVS effective August 1, 2011, subject to Commission approval of this application. AT&T clarifies that MVS will continue to be provided to existing customers in accordance with the terms of their contracts until their contracts expire. AT&T explains that services then will continue to be provided on a month-to-month basis for customers without a contract and may be discontinued on or after March 28, 2015, subject to Commission approval of this application. AT&T maintains that the public convenience and necessity will not be harmed by the proposed discontinuance because there are competing advanced video transport services in the marketplace including AT&T's Serial Component Video Service and TV1 Analog Video Service. AT&T asserts that it notified affected customers of the proposed discontinuance by letters mailed via U.S. mail on May 13, 2011. AT&T acknowledges that its application will be processed under the Commission's rules for dominant carriers.

In accordance with section 63.71(c) of the Commission's rules, AT&T's application will be deemed to be granted automatically on the 60th day after the release date of this public notice, unless the Commission notifies AT&T that the grant will not be automatically effective. In the application and notice to customers, AT&T indicates that the AT&T Affiliates plan to discontinue offering new arrangements for MVS on or after August 1, 2011, subject to Commission approval of this application. AT&T further indicates that the AT&T Affiliates plan to discontinue MVS to existing customers on or after March 28, 2015, subject to Commission approval of this application. Accordingly, pursuant to section 63.71(c) and the terms of AT&T's application and notice to customers, absent further Commission action, the AT&T Affiliates may cease to offer new arrangements for MVS in the Service Areas on or after August 1, 2011, and may terminate service to existing MVS customers in the Service Areas on or after March 28, 2015, in accordance with AT&T's filed representations. The Commission normally will authorize proposed discontinuances of service unless it is shown that customers or other end users would be unable to receive service or a reasonable substitute from another carrier, or that the public convenience and necessity would be otherwise adversely affected.

This proceeding is considered a "permit but disclose" proceeding for purposes of the Commission's ex parte rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 1.1200-1.1216. Comments objecting to this application must be filed with the Commission on or before June 30, 2011. Such comments should refer to WC Docket No. 11-94 and Comp. Pol. File No. 991.
