MEDIA BUREAU ANNOUNCES FILING OF REQUEST FOR DECLARATORY RULING BY NEWS CORPORATION AND PERMIT-BUT-DISCLOSE EX PARTE STATUS FOR THE PROCEEDING
MB Docket No. 12-257

On August 9, 2012, News Corporation, (“News Corp.”) parent company of Fox Television Stations, Inc. (“Fox”), licensee of multiple digital broadcast television stations, filed a Request for Declaratory Ruling with the Commission seeking a finding that it would be in the public interest for all of News Corp.’s public shareholders to participate in a single, one-time only vote regarding an amendment to News Corp.’s Restated Certificate of Incorporation that it states would facilitate the proposed separation of the company’s non-broadcast interests from the rest of the company. News Corp. states that allowing all of its public shareholders to participate in the vote would implicate Section 310(b)(4) of the Communications Act, which restricts foreign ownership and voting interests in Commission licensees. 47 U.S.C. § 310(b)(4).

In light of the unique nature of this request and its public interest implications, we invite public comment on the petition from interested parties. Comments will be due on October 15, 2012. Oppositions will be due October 30, 2012, and Replies will be due on November 7, 2012. The shareholder meeting in which the vote will be taken is scheduled for January 2013.

Furthermore, we believe that making this proceeding permit-but-disclose for ex parte purposes will assure the staff’s ability to discuss and obtain information needed to resolve the issues presented expeditiously, and that adoption of modified ex parte procedures is appropriate. Accordingly, by this Public Notice, and pursuant to Section 1.1200(a) of the Commission’s rules,<sup>1</sup> we announce that the ex parte procedures applicable to permit-but-disclose proceedings will govern our consideration of the instant proceeding.<sup>2</sup>

Permit-but-disclose ex parte procedures permit interested parties to make ex parte presentations to the Commissioners and Commission employees and require that these presentations be disclosed in the record of the relevant proceeding. Persons making a written ex parte presentation to the Commissioners or Commission employees must file the written presentation with the Commission’s Secretary no later than two business day after the presentation.<sup>3</sup> Persons making oral ex parte presentations must file a

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Request for Declaratory Ruling and all further filings will be available in the Commission's Electronic Comment Filing System ("ECFS") under Docket 12-257. As of this date, all pleadings, comments and other filings are to be made in ECFS in Docket 12-257. Persons and entities that file comments become parties to the proceeding. They may participate fully in the proceeding, including seeking access to any confidential and/or highly confidential information that may be filed under a protective order.

New issues may not be raised in responses or replies. A party or interested person seeking to raise a new issue after the pleading cycle has closed must show good cause why it was not possible for it to have raised the issue previously. Submissions after the pleading cycle has closed that seek to raise new issues based on new facts or newly discovered facts should be filed within 15 days after such facts are discovered. Absent such a showing of good cause, any issues not timely raised may be disregarded by the Commission.

All filings concerning matters referenced in this Public Notice should refer to MB Docket No. 12-257.

Persons making oral ex parte presentations are reminded that memoranda summarizing the presentation must (1) list all persons attending or otherwise participating in the meeting at which the ex parte presentation was made, and (2) summarize all data presented and arguments made during the presentation. If the presentation consisted in whole or in part of the presentation of data or arguments already reflected in the presenter’s written comments, memoranda or other filings in the proceeding, the presenter may provide citations to such data or arguments in his or her prior comments, memoranda, or other filings (specifying the relevant page and/or paragraph numbers where such data or arguments can be found) in lieu of summarizing them in the memorandum.
