WIRELINE COMPETITION BUREAU REMINDS ELIGIBLE TELECOMMUNICATIONS CARRIERS OF THEIR OBLIGATION TO ELIMINATE DUPLICATIVE LIFELINE SUPPORT

WC Docket Nos. 11-42, 03-109, 12-23 and CC Docket No. 96-45

In this public notice, the Wireline Competition Bureau (Bureau) provides guidance to Eligible Telecommunications Carriers (ETCs) and state administrators regarding compliance with the one-per-household rule adopted in the Lifeline Reform Order, and reminds ETCs of their ongoing duty to prevent and eliminate duplicative support.1

In the Lifeline Reform Order, the Commission codified a rule that eligible consumers can only receive one Lifeline-supported service per household.2 To comply with the one-per-household rule, each ETC has an ongoing duty to ensure that it provides support to only one subscriber per household.3 An ETC may not serve more than one person at an address without obtaining the required certifications.4

Consistent with the one-per-household rule, once an ETC determines through an examination of its records that it is providing Lifeline supported service to multiple subscribers at a single address, the ETC must provide each subscriber at that address with a one-per-household worksheet. The ETC must also inform the subscriber that he or she has 30 days to respond and provide the requested information, or the subscriber will be de-enrolled.5 The ETC must de-enroll a subscriber that fails to attest that the subscriber is a member of a separate household at the address or fails to return the one-per-household worksheet.6 Similarly, if a prospective subscriber seeks to obtain service at an address where the ETC is already serving a subscriber, the prospective subscriber must attest that it is part of a separate household, prior to the ETC providing Lifeline service to the new subscriber.7 ETCs which have failed to take the
