CONSUMER AND GOVERNMENTAL AFFAIRS BUREAU SEEKS COMMENT ON PETITION FOR EXPEDITED DECLARATORY RULING FROM THE CARGO AIRLINE ASSOCIATION

CG Docket No. 02-278

Comments Due: November 15, 2012
Reply Comments Due: November 30, 2012

With this Public Notice, we seek comment on a Petition for Expedited Declaratory Ruling filed by the Cargo Airline Association (CAA)¹ seeking clarification of an issue arising under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA)² and Section 64.1200 of the Commission's rules.³ CAA asks the Commission to clarify that package delivery companies can rely upon representations from senders that the package recipient consents to receiving autodialed and prerecorded calls to a wireless telephone number for purposes of notifications regarding shipment of the package.⁴ CAA asks the Commission, in the alternative, to declare that package delivery notifications are exempt from the TCPA's requirement to obtain prior express consent before making autodialed or prerecorded calls to a wireless telephone number.⁵ CAA states that this clarification is needed because package delivery companies generally do not have any contact with a recipient prior to shipment of a package and that it would be impossible, given the volume of daily package deliveries, to manually dial each delivery notification call to wireless phone numbers or to obtain prior express consent from each package recipient before making autodialed or prerecorded package delivery notification calls to wireless phone numbers.⁶

According to its petition, CAA is "the nationwide trade organization representing the interests of the United States all-cargo air transportation industry." Its members include ABX Air, Atlas Air, Capital Cargo, DHL, FedEx Express, Kalitta Air, and UPS Airlines.⁷
