On February 3, 2012, dPi Teleconnect, LLC (dPi Teleconnect) and Amvensys Capital Group, LLC, f/k/a Amvensys Telecom Holdings, LLC (Amvensys, together with dPi Teleconnect, the Applicants) filed an application, pursuant to section 63.03 of the Commission's rules,¹ requesting authority for the transfer of control of dPi Teleconnect to Amvensys. On November 17, 2009 (the Closing Date), without prior approval from the Commission, Amvensys acquired all of the membership interests in dPi Teleconnect from dPi Teleconnect's then-current owner, Rent-A-Center East, Inc. (Rent-A-Center).²

dPi Teleconnect, a Delaware limited liability company, provides local and long distance services on a resale basis to residential customers in 31 states.³ dPi Teleconnect is a competitive local exchange carrier (LEC) and interexchange carrier (IXC) that provides pre-paid residential local telephone, domestic long distance, and dial-up Internet access services. On February 8, 2012, Applicants filed a supplement to their original application and a revised STA request. On February 9, 2012, the Wireline Competition Bureau granted the STA for the domestic authorization for a period of 60 days. A grant of the application will be without prejudice to any enforcement action by the Commission for non-compliance with the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, or the Commission's rules.

² Applicants state that Rent-A-Center is currently a Delaware corporation and an operator in the rent-to-own industry.

On October 16, 2009, Rent-A-Center, dPi Teleconnect, and Amvensys Technologies, Inc. (Amvensys Tech, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Amvensys) entered into an Ownership Interest Purchase Agreement (Agreement) whereby Amvensys Tech agreed to purchase all of the membership interests in dPi Teleconnect. The Agreement was consummated and Amvensys took control of dPi Teleconnect on the Closing Date.⁴ Applicants assert that the proposed transaction is entitled to presumptive streamlined treatment under section 63.03(b)(2)(i) of the Commission's rules and that a grant of the application will serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity.⁵
