NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE AND ORDER

Adopted: January 18, 2012

Released: January 18, 2012

By the District Director, Dallas Office, South Central Region, Enforcement Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture and Order (NAL), we find that James Cable, LLC (James Cable), owner of antenna structure number 1016806, in Durant, Oklahoma (the Antenna Structure), apparently willfully and repeatedly violated section 17.50 of the Commission's rules (Rules)¹ by failing to clean or repaint the Antenna Structure as often as necessary to maintain good visibility. We conclude that James Cable is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000). In addition, we direct James Cable to submit no later than thirty (30) calendar days from the date of this NAL, a statement signed under penalty of perjury stating that the Antenna Structure has been cleaned and repainted.

II. BACKGROUND

2. The Antenna Structure is 128 meters in overall height above ground and is required to be painted and lighted.² On September 6, 2011, agents from the Dallas Office of the Enforcement Bureau (Dallas Office) inspected the Antenna Structure and observed that the structure's paint was extremely faded and chipped in several areas, leaving the metal exposed and reducing the structure's visibility. Agents from the Dallas Office were unable to distinguish the alternating bands of paint on the Antenna Structure from 800 feet away from the Antenna Structure.³

² See Antenna Structure Registration database for antenna structure number 1016806. See also 47 C.F.R. § 17.21(a) (requiring antenna structures to be painted and lighted when they exceed 60.96 meters in height above ground).

³ According to the Antenna Structure Registration database, antenna structure number 1016806 must be painted consistent with FCC Paragraphs 1, 3, 4, 13, and 21. FCC Paragraph 1 requires antenna structures to be painted throughout their height with alternate bands of aviation surface orange and white. The width of the bands must be equal and approximately one-seventh the height of the structure, provided however, that the bands shall not be more than 100 feet nor less than 1.5 feet in width.

III. DISCUSSION

3. Section 503(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (Act),⁴ provides that any person who willfully or repeatedly fails to comply substantially with the terms and conditions of any license, or willfully or repeatedly fails to comply with any of the provisions of the Act or of any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission thereunder, shall be liable for a forfeiture penalty. Section 312(f)(1) of the Act defines willful as the “conscious and deliberate commission or omission of [any] act, irrespective of any intent to violate” the law.⁵ The legislative history to section 312(f)(1) of the Act clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both section 312 and 503(b) of the Act⁶ and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the section 503(b) context.⁷ The Commission may also assess a forfeiture for violations that are merely repeated, and not willful.⁸ The term “repeated” means the commission or omission of such act more than once or for more than one day.⁹

A. Failure to Maintain the Antenna Structure’s Paint to Ensure Good Visibility

4. Section 17.50 of the Rules requires that antenna structures be cleaned or repainted as often as necessary to maintain good visibility.¹⁰ On September 6, 2011, agents from the Dallas Office observed that the paint on the Antenna Structure was not in a condition that provided good visibility. The paint on the Antenna Structure was extremely faded and had worn away in several areas. Based on the condition of the paint, the agents concluded that the Antenna Structure was not clearly visible for more than one day. Based on the evidence before us, we find that James Cable apparently willfully and repeatedly violated section 17.50 of the Rules by failing to clean and repaint the Antenna Structure in order to maintain good visibility.

B. Proposed Forfeiture

5. Pursuant to the Commission’s Forfeiture Policy Statement and section 1.80 of the Rules, the base forfeiture amount for failing to comply with prescribed painting of the tower marking is $10,000.¹¹ In assessing the monetary forfeiture amount, we must also take into account the statutory factors set forth in section 503(b)(2)(E) of the Act, which include the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violations, and with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and other such matters as justice may require.¹² Applying the Forfeiture Policy Statement, section 1.80 of the Rules, and the statutory factors to the instant case, we conclude that James Cable is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of $10,000.

⁹ Section 312(f)(2) of the Act, 47 U.S.C. § 312(f)(2), which also applies to violations for which forfeitures are assessed under section 503(b) of the Act, provides that “[t]he term ‘repeated’, when used with reference to the commission or omission of any act, means the commission or omission of such act more than once or, if such commission or omission is continuous, for more than one day.” See Callais Cablevision, Inc. at 1362.

6. We direct James Cable to submit a written statement pursuant to section 1.16 of the Rules¹³ signed under penalty of perjury by an officer or director of James Cable stating that the Antenna Structure has been painted to maintain good visibility. If the Antenna Structure has not yet been repainted, we direct James Cable to provide a timetable for when the work will be completed. We also direct James Cable to describe the procedures it has implemented to ensure the Antenna Structure retains good visibility. This statement must be provided to the Dallas Office at the address listed in paragraph 11 within thirty (30) calendar days of the release date of this NAL.
