By the Acting Chief, Enforcement Bureau:

1. In this Order, we adopt a Consent Decree entered into between the Enforcement Bureau (Bureau) of the Federal Communications Commission and AccessLine Communications Corporation (AccessLine). The Consent Decree resolves and terminates an investigation by the Bureau into whether AccessLine and its parent company, Telanetix, Inc. (Telanetix), violated Section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (Act)¹ and Sections 63.03, 63.04, 63.18, and 63.24 of the Commission’s rules² in connection with the transfer of control of domestic and international Section 214 authorizations held by AccessLine.

2. A copy of the Consent Decree negotiated by the Bureau and AccessLine, which incorporates a two-year compliance plan requirement, is attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

3. After evaluating the facts before us and reviewing the terms of the Consent Decree, we find that the public interest would be served by adopting the Consent Decree and terminating the investigation.

4. In the absence of material new evidence relating to this matter, we conclude that our investigation raises no substantial or material questions of fact as to whether AccessLine possesses the basic qualifications, including those related to character, to hold or obtain any Commission license or authority.

5. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to Sections 4(i) of the Act³ and Sections 0.111 and 0.311 of the Commission’s rules,⁴ the Consent Decree attached to this Order IS ADOPTED.

II. BACKGROUND

3. Section 214 of the Act requires telecommunications carriers to obtain a certificate of public convenience and necessity from the Commission before constructing, acquiring, operating, or engaging in transmission over lines of communications, and before discontinuing, reducing, or impairing service to a community.³ In accordance with Sections 63.03 and 63.24 of the Rules, any “substantial” transfer of control of a carrier’s lines or of Section 214 authority requires application to and prior approval from the Commission.⁴ Sections 63.04 and 63.18 of the Rules set forth the information that must be included in the domestic and international transfer of control applications.⁵

⁴ 47 C.F.R. §§ 63.03; 63.24. A transfer of control of domestic lines or of a domestic Section 214 authority is considered “substantial” if it results in a change in ultimate ownership or control of those lines or that authority. See 47 C.F.R. § 63.03(d). A transfer of control of international lines or of an international Section 214 authority is considered “substantial” if it results in a change in the actual controlling party of those lines or that authority. 47 C.F.R. § 63.24(a).

⁵ See 47 C.F.R. §§ 63.04, 63.18.

4. AccessLine holds blanket domestic Section 214 authority and was granted international Section 214 authority on December 9, 1998.⁶ The Company provides facilities-based and resold long distance services throughout the United States.⁷ AccessLine is directly controlled by AccessLine Holdings, Inc. (AccessLine Holdings) and indirectly controlled by Telanetix, Inc. (Telanetix).⁸ Telanetix is publicly traded on the OTC Bulletin Board.⁹

5. On June 30, 2010, Telanetix and HCP-TELA, LLC (HCPT) entered into a security purchase agreement by which Telanetix agreed to issue secured notes and common stock sufficient to give HCPT a 55 percent ownership interest in Telanetix.¹⁰ On July 2, 2010, Telanetix issued the notes to HCPT; on that date and on September 2, 2010, Telanetix issued the common stock to HCPT.¹¹ As a result of these transactions, HCPT acquired direct control of Telanetix and indirect control over AccessLine Holdings and AccessLine.¹² Consequently, there was a substantial transfer of control of the domestic and international Section 214 authority held by AccessLine from Telanetix to HCPT.

6. Beginning in January 2013, AccessLine and Telanetix filed a series of applications to rectify its prior failure to obtain Commission consent to the substantial transfers of control described above.

- On January 28, 2013, AccessLine and Telanetix filed a request for Special Temporary Authority (STA) with the Commission's International Bureau (IB) to continue international telecommunications service pending IB action on an application for the transfer of control of its international Section 214 authority to HCPT, which was also filed on January 28, 2013.¹³ On

- On February 11, 2013, AccessLine and Telanetix filed with the Commission’s Wireline Competition Bureau (WCB) an application for an STA to continue providing domestic Section 214 telecommunications service pending action by WCB on an application to transfer control of AccessLine’s domestic Section 214 authority from Telanetix to HCPT, which was also filed on February 11, 2013.¹⁶ WCB granted the STA on the same date.¹⁷ On March 29, 2013, WCB granted the domestic Section 214 transfer of control application.¹⁸

7. On April 8, 2013, the Bureau sent a Letter of Inquiry (LOI) to AccessLine regarding its transfer of control transaction with HCPT.¹⁹ On April 29, 2013, AccessLine filed its response.²⁰

In consideration for the termination of said Investigation, AccessLine agrees to the terms, conditions, and procedures contained herein. The Bureau further agrees that in the absence of new material evidence, the Bureau will not use the facts developed in this Investigation through the Effective Date, or the existence of this Consent Decree, to institute, on its own motion, any new proceeding, formal or informal, or take any action on its own motion against AccessLine concerning the matter that was the subject of the Investigation. The Bureau also agrees that in the absence of new material evidence it will not use the facts developed in this Investigation through the Effective Date, or the existence of this Consent Decree, to institute on its own motion any proceeding, formal or informal, or take any action on its own motion against AccessLine with respect to AccessLine's basic qualifications, including its character qualifications, to be a Commission licensee or hold Commission authorizations.
