VERIZON COMMUNICATIONS INC. ON BEHALF OF ITS SUBSIDIARIES HOLDING FCC
COMMON CARRIER RADIO LICENSES SEEKS FOREIGN OWNERSHIP RULING
PURSUANT TO SECTION 310(b)(4) OF THE COMMUNICATIONS ACT OF 1934, AS AMENDED

IB Docket No. 13-230

PLEADING CYCLE ESTABLISHED

Comments Due: October 18, 2013

Replies Due: November 1, 2013

I. INTRODUCTION

Verizon Communications Inc. (“Verizon”), on behalf of its subsidiaries holding common carrier radio licenses (“Joint Petitioners”), has filed a petition for declaratory ruling with the Commission requesting that the Commission find, pursuant to section 310(b)(4) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended,¹ that it would not serve the public interest to prohibit a widely dispersed body of shareholders from holding aggregate foreign ownership in Verizon in excess of the 25 percent benchmark in section 310(b)(4), with no single foreign shareholder holding more than a five percent interest.²

Verizon states that it has filed the petition for declaratory ruling in connection with its recently announced, planned acquisition of the non-controlling 45 percent general partnership interest in Cellco Partnership d/b/a Verizon Wireless (“Verizon Wireless”) that is indirectly held by Vodafone Group Plc (“Vodafone”), a public limited company organized in England.³ Verizon is currently the indirect holder of a controlling 55 percent general partnership interest in Verizon Wireless.⁴ According to the Petition, part of the consideration for the planned acquisition will be in the form of Verizon stock that will be distributed to Vodafone's shareholders. Verizon explains that the share distribution may increase the aggregate percentage of Verizon shares held by non-U.S. investors from the current approximately 8.24 percent to an estimated aggregate 24.3-25.3 percent.⁵ This range includes both the pre-transaction stock held outside the United States by existing Verizon shareholders, as well as the additional shares that will be distributed to Vodafone's shareholders once the transaction closes.⁶ Verizon states that, because it is publicly traded and widely held, the percentage of foreign ownership will necessarily vary somewhat over time as shares are traded on the open market.⁷

¹ 47 U.S.C. § 310(b)(4). The rules applicable to foreign ownership of common carrier, aeronautical en route and aeronautical fixed radio station licensees and common carrier spectrum lessees are set forth in sections 1.990 through 1.994 of the Commission’s rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 1.990-1.994. See also Review of Foreign Ownership Policies for Common Carrier and Aeronautical Radio Licensees under Section 310(b)(4) of the Communications Act of 1934, as Amended, IB Docket No. 11-133, Second Report and Order, FCC 13-50, 28 FCC Rcd 5741 (2013).

Verizon is a publicly traded Delaware corporation. According to the Petition, the Verizon subsidiaries that hold FCC licenses – including the common carrier licenses that are the subject of the Petition⁸ – are authorized to provide telecommunications services throughout the United States, including offering wireline and wireless telecommunications services to mass market, business, government, and wholesale customers. Verizon itself does not hold any FCC licenses or authorizations.⁹ Verizon's stock will continue to be publicly traded and widely held after closing, and it states that no non-U.S. person or entity will hold a five percent equity and/or voting interest, or a controlling interest, in the outstanding Verizon shares.¹⁰ Additionally, it states that no U.S. individual or entity will hold, directly or indirectly, more than ten percent of the equity and/or voting interests, or a controlling interest, in Verizon.¹¹

⁴ Id. Verizon will acquire Vodafone's 45 percent interest in Verizon Wireless by acquiring all of the common stock of Vodafone Americas Finance 1 Inc. ("VAF1"), a U.S.-organized subsidiary of Vodafone which indirectly holds, through a series of intermediate U.S.-organized holding companies, all of Vodafone's minority partnership interest in Verizon Wireless. Verizon will also acquire the intermediate holding companies in the direct ownership chain between VAF1 and Verizon Wireless, excluding any assets other than the interest in Verizon Wireless and a cash balance at one of the companies. All other assets in the companies being acquired will be removed in the reorganization to be completed prior to the close of the transaction. Id. at 3. See also http://www.vodafone.com/content/index/media/group_press_releases/2013/vodafone_to_realiseus130billionforits45interestinverizonwireless.html (last visited Sept. 17, 2013).

Verizon Wireless is a Delaware general partnership formed by Verizon and Vodafone, and controlled by Verizon. Verizon Wireless holds a variety of authorizations and licenses to provide common carrier fixed and mobile services, private radio services, and other services. After consummation of the proposed transaction, Verizon Wireless will continue to be controlled by Verizon.¹²
