INTERNATIONAL BUREAU REMINDS INTERESTED PARTIES THAT SECTION 325(c) APPLICATIONS FOR PERMIT TO DELIVER PROGRAMS TO FOREIGN STATIONS AND INTERNATIONAL HIGH FREQUENCY APPLICATIONS CAN BE SUBMITTED ELECTRONICALLY AS NON-DOCKETED FILINGS

On December 2, 2014, the Commission announced that several types of filings that previously could only be filed on paper may now be filed online via the Commission's Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS).¹ Section 325(c) applications for permit to deliver programs to foreign stations² and international high frequency applications³ are among those applications that may now be submitted electronically through the Non-Docketed Filing Module of ECFS. Paper filings of these applications will still be accepted.

To access the new Non-Docketed Filing Module, go to the ECFS Home Page at <http://apps.fcc.gov/ecfs> and choose "Submit a Non-Docketed Filing."

- Select the appropriate "inbox"
 - Section 325(c) Application for Permit to Deliver Programs to Foreign Stations or
 - International High Frequency Application
- Fill in the Contact Information
- Select "Application" under Filing Type
- Fill in the Address Information
- Attach the application and select "Continue"

Upon filing, users will see a confirmation page indicating that the submission has been accepted along with a confirmation number for their records. The filing will be available to Commission staff and to the public usually within one business day.

Any fees that are required to accompany such filings may be paid using the Commission's online Fee Filer app at <https://apps.fcc.gov/FeeFiler>. A link to the Fee Filer app is available on the ECFS Non-Docketed Filing Module website as well.
