ORDER

Adopted: May 28, 2014

Released: May 30, 2014

By the Deputy Chief, Consumer Policy Division, Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau:

1. In this Order, we consider the complaints¹ alleging that Consumer Telcom, Inc. (CTI) changed Complainants' telecommunications service providers without obtaining authorization and verification from Complainants in violation of the Commission's rules.² We conclude that CTI's actions did result in unauthorized changes in Complainants' telecommunications service providers and we grant Complainants' complaints.

2. In December 1998, the Commission released the Section 258 Order in which it adopted rules to implement Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934 (Act), as amended by the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (1996 Act).³ Section 258 prohibits the practice of "slamming," the submission or execution of an unauthorized change in a subscriber's selection

Prior to the adoption of Section 258, the Commission had taken various steps to address the slamming problem. See, e.g., Policies and Rules Concerning Unauthorized Changes of Consumers' Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 94-129, Report and Order, 10 FCC Rcd 9560 (1995), stayed in part, 11 FCC Rcd 856 (1995); Policies and Rules Concerning Changing Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 91-64, 7 FCC Rcd 1038 (1992), reconsideration denied, 8 FCC Rcd 3215 (1993); Investigation of Access and Divestiture Related Tariffs, CC Docket No. 83-1145, Phase I, 101 F.C.C.2d 911, 101 F.C.C.2d 935, reconsideration denied, 102 F.C.C.2d 503 (1985).

of a provider of telephone exchange service or telephone toll service.⁴ In the Section 258 Order, the Commission adopted aggressive new rules designed to take the profit out of slamming, broadened the scope of the slamming rules to encompass all carriers, and modified its existing requirements for the authorization and verification of preferred carrier changes. The rules require, among other things, that a carrier receive individual subscriber consent before a carrier change may occur.⁵ Pursuant to Section 258, carriers are absolutely barred from changing a customer's preferred local or long distance carrier without first complying with one of the Commission's verification procedures.⁶ Specifically, a carrier must: (1) obtain the subscriber's written or electronically signed authorization in a format that meets the requirements of Section 64.1130; (2) obtain confirmation from the subscriber via a toll-free number provided exclusively for the purpose of confirming orders electronically; or (3) utilize an independent third party to verify the subscriber's order.⁷

3. The Commission also has adopted liability rules. These rules require the carrier to absolve the subscriber where the subscriber has not paid his or her bill. In that context, if the subscriber has not already paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the subscriber is absolved of liability for charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier for service provided during the first 30 days after the unauthorized change.⁸ Where the subscriber has paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the Commission's rules require that the unauthorized carrier pay 150% of those charges to the authorized carrier, and the authorized carrier shall refund or credit to the subscriber 50% of all charges paid by the subscriber to the unauthorized carrier.⁹ Carriers should note that our actions in this order do not preclude the Commission from taking additional action, if warranted, pursuant to Section 503 of the Act.¹⁰

4. We received Complainants' complaints alleging that Complainants' telecommunications service providers had been changed without Complainants' authorization.¹¹ Pursuant to Sections 1.719 and 64.1150 of our rules,¹² we notified CTI of the complaints and

CTI responded.¹³ CTI states that authorization was received and confirmed through third party verification (TPV) in each case. We have reviewed the TPV's that CTI filed with its responses. CTI's verifier in each case stated that the purpose of the recorded conversation was "to confirm the change in long distance service to Consumer Telecom as your long distance carrier". However, the purpose of a TPV recording is to verify a subscriber's intent to change their preferred carrier. As we emphasized in the Fourth Report and Order, "any description of the carrier change transaction...must not be misleading" and verifiers should convey explicitly that "the consumers will have authorized a carrier change, and not for instance an upgrade in existing service."¹⁴ We find that CTI's actions were in violation of our carrier change rules, and we discuss CTI's liability below.¹⁵

5. Pursuant to Section 64.1170(b) our rules, CTI must forward to Complainant's authorized carrier an amount equal to 150% of all charges paid by the subscriber to CTI along with copies of any telephone bills issued from CTI to the Complainant.¹⁶ Within ten days of receipt of this amount, Complainant's authorized carrier shall provide a refund or credit to Complainant in the amount of 50% of all charges paid by Complainant to CTI. Complainant has the option of asking their authorized carrier to re-rate CTI charges based on its rates and, on behalf of Complainant, seek from CTI, any re-rated amount exceeding 50% of all charges paid by Complainant to CTI. Complainant's authorized carrier must also send a notice to the Commission, referencing this Order, stating that it has given a refund or credit to Complainant.¹⁷ If Complainant's authorized carrier has not received the reimbursement required from CTI within 45 days of the release of this Order, Complainant's authorized carrier must notify the Commission and Complainant accordingly. Complainant's authorized carrier also must notify the Complainant of his or her right to pursue a claim against CTI for a refund of all charges paid to CTI.¹⁸

6. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 258, and Sections 0.141, 0.361 and 1.719 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.141, 0.361, 1.719, the complaints filed against CTI, Inc., ARE GRANTED.

¹³ See Appendix.

¹⁴ See Fourth Report and Order, 23 FCC Rcd 493 (2008)(emphasis added); see also 47 C.F.R. § 64.1120(c)(3)(iii).

¹⁵ If any Complainant is unsatisfied with the resolution of this complaint, such Complainant may file a formal complaint with the Commission pursuant to Section 1.721 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.721. Such filing will be deemed to relate back to the filing date of such Complainant's informal complaint so long as the formal complaint is filed within 45 days from the date this order is mailed or delivered electronically to such Complainant. See 47 C.F.R. § 1.719.

¹⁶ See 47 C.F.R. § 64.1170(b)(1)(2).

¹⁸ See 47 C.F.R. § 64.1170(e).

7. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 64.1170(b) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 64.1170(b), that CTI must forward to the authorized carriers an amount equal to 150% of all charges paid by the subscriber along with copies of any telephone bills issued from the company to the Complainant within ten (10) days of the release of this order.

8. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Order is effective upon release.
